23. Every bill shall be read on three several days previous to its passage (unless in case of urgency, two-thirds of the membership of the Senate in which it is being considered shall by vote of the ayes and noes dispense with this provision) and the last reading shall be at length. The President shall give notice, at each of the second and third readings, which reading it is, and no bill shall be read at either reading until the Senate has so determined by a vote (should any Senator object to such reading). (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

24. When bills are reported from committees they shall be placed upon the General File, to be kept by the Secretary as follows: All bills when reported to the Senate by the committees shall be placed at the foot of the second-reading file, in the order in which the reports are made, and after the second reading they shall be placed at the foot of the third-reading file, in the order of reading, and precedence shall be given in the consideration of bills in the following order: Third-reading file and second-reading file, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent or by a two-thirds vote of the Senate. The bills upon third reading shall be considered in the order in which they appear upon the file, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent or by vote of majority of the members present; such vote to be taken by roll call; provided, that if a bill is passed on file for any reason, other than absence of the author by leave of the Senate, note of the fact shall be made in the General File, and when passed on file a second time, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, the bill shall be ordered at the foot of the file, and notice of the fact of the bill having been passed on file prior to the order placing it at the foot of the file shall be omitted from the General File. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 40.)

25. The General File shall be the special order for each day between such hours as the Senate may determine, unless sooner disposed of; but no bill shall lose its place upon the file by expiration of the time or by adjournment of the Senate while it is under consideration. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

26. Any subject may, by vote of a majority of those voting, be made a special order, and when the time fixed for its consideration arrives, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

27. All bills appropriating money from any fund shall be referred to the Committee on Finance before being read a second time. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 21.)

28. The final question on the second reading of every bill originating in the Senate shall be: "Shall the bill be engrossed?" (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 42.)

29. All bills amended on second or third reading shall immediately be reprinted. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 75.)

30. No Senate bill shall be passed by the Senate within five days of the time set for adjournment sine die of the two houses of the Legislature. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 4.)

Consideration of Assembly Bills.

31. Messengers from the Assembly may be introduced at any stage of business, except while a question is being put, while the ayes and noes are being called, while ballots are being counted, or while a member is addressing the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 64.)

32. Messages from the Assembly may be considered at any time by vote of the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 65.)

33. When an Assembly bill has been received by the Senate, with a message announcing that it has passed the Assembly, such bill shall be read the first time and be referred by the President to a standing committee; provided, however, that when an Assembly bill is received, the text of which is stated by a member to be identical with that of a Senate bill which has already been considered and reported by a standing committee of the Senate, such Assembly bill shall be referred to the Committee on Engrossment and Enrollment for comparison, which committee shall report without delay, whether or not such bill is identical with the Senate bill. If reported identical, such Assembly bill shall be substituted for the Senate bill, shall take its place on the second-reading file and be considered as having received the same committee recommendation as the Senate bill; provided, that the fact that the bills are identical shall be entered in the Journal. Such Senate bill shall thereupon be placed upon the file of unfinished business. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 38.)

Amendments

34. A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, resolution or constitutional amendment under consideration. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 47.)

35. In filling up blanks, the least sum or number and the shortest time shall be put first. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 77.)

36. A constitutional amendment or bill requiring a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate for final adoption or passage may be amended by a majority of those voting. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 31, last sentence.)

37. An amendment may be laid on the table without prejudice to the bill. When an amendment proposed to any pending measure shall be laid on the table, it shall not carry with it or prejudice such measure.

If the question in debate contains several propositions, any Senator may have the same divided; except a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided. The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition, nor shall it prevent a motion to simply strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion to strike out prevent a motion to strike out and insert; but pending a motion to strike out and insert, the part to be stricken out and the part to be inserted shall each be regarded, for the purpose of amendment, as a question. Motions to amend the part to be stricken out shall have precedence. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 45.)

38. No amendment shall be received for discussion at the third reading of any bill; but it shall at all times be in order, before the final passage of such bill, to move its commitment under special instructions to amend. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 37.)

Motions.

39. In all cases not provided for by the rules, the authority shall be Robert's Rules of Order. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 85.)

40. On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill, concurrent or joint resolution, or constitutional amendment has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on motion of any Senator; provided, notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a Senator voting with the prevailing side; and it shall not be in order to reconsider on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion for reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. It shall require twenty-one votes to carry any motion to reconsider the vote by which any bill, concurrent or joint resolution has been passed or defeated, and twenty-seven votes to carry any motion to reconsider the vote by which any constitutional amendment has been passed or defeated. Notice of reconsideration of the vote by which a senate bill was passed, or a senate joint resolution, senate concurrent resolution or senate constitutional amendment adopted, shall not be in order on or after the eighth day preceding the last day of the session. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session.

41. When a bill, resolution, amendment, order or message upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate and be communicated to the Assembly, a motion to reconsider shall be preceded by a motion to request the Assembly to return the same, which last-named motion shall be acted upon immediately and without debate, and if determined in the negative shall be a final disposition of the motion to reconsider. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 63.)

42. If a Senator gives notice that he intends to move a reconsideration, the Secretary shall not transmit the bill, concurrent or joint resolution, or constitutional amendment to the Assembly till the reconsideration is disposed of, or the time for moving the same has expired, unless the bill or resolution has already been transmitted to the Assembly. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 63.)

43. A Senator, after a notice to reconsider is given, as provided in Rule 41, may, at the reconsideration thereof, present the main question in his argument thereon, and the same may be debated by the Senate provided that the subject matter is debatable. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Debates.

44. 1. When a Senator desires to address the Senate he shall rise in his place, address the President, and when recognized he shall proceed to speak.

2. No Senator shall speak more than twice in any one debate on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill, without leave; and Senators who have once spoken shall not again be entitled to the floor (except for explanation) so long as any Senator who has not spoken desires to speak. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 79.)

3. No Senator shall be interrupted when speaking, and no question shall be asked him except those through the presiding officer.

4. The author of a bill, motion, or resolution shall have the privilege of closing the debate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 50.)

45. When two or more Senators arise at the same time to address the Senate, the presiding officer shall designate the Senator who is entitled to the floor. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 51.)

46. When a Senator shall be called to order he shall sit down until the President shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any Senator. If a Senator be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable language shall immediately be taken down in writing by the Secretary of the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 6, 52, 53.)

47. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but the following privileged questions, which shall have precedence in the following order.

1. To adjourn.
2. For a call of the Senate.
3. To lay on the table.
4. To postpone to a day certain.
5. To commit.
6. To amend.
7. To postpone indefinitely.

Provided, however, that during a call of the Senate, it may consider and transact any matter or business that the Senators then present shall unanimously decide to consider, but no call of the Senate shall be had, during a call of the Senate, on any matter so taken up or considered while the Senate is under call. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 44.)

48. No motion shall be debated until the same be seconded and distinctly announced by the President; and it shall be reduced to writing if desired by the President or any Senator, and read by the Secretary, before the same shall be debated. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 49.)

49. When the reading of a paper (except a petition) is called for, and the same is objected to by any Senator, the question shall be determined by a vote of the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 67.)

50. The previous question shall be put in the following form: "Shall the question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the Senators present upon division; and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate except that the author of the bill or the amendments shall have the right to close, and the question under discussion shall thereupon be immediately put to a vote. On a motion for the previous question prior to a vote being taken by the Senate, a call of the Senate shall be in order. (Corresponding Assembly Rules Nos. 54 and 55.)

Voting.

51. When the ayes and noes shall be called for by three members present, every member within the bar of the Senate at the time the question was put shall declare openly, and without debate, assent or dissent to the question. In taking the ayes and noes, and upon the call of the Senate, the names of the Senators shall be taken alphabetically. When the ayes and noes shall be taken upon any question in pursuance of this rule, no Senator shall be permitted, under any circumstances whatever, to vote after the announcement of the vote by the presiding officer. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 57 and 61.)

52. When a Senator declines to vote on a call of his name he shall be required to assign his reasons therefor, and having assigned them, the presiding officer shall submit the question to the Senate: "Shall the Senator, for the reasons assigned by him, be excused from voting?" which shall be decided without debate. And these proceedings shall be had after the roll call and before the result is announced, and any further proceedings in reference thereto shall be after such announcement. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 57.)

The Governor.

53. Messengers from the Governor may be introduced at any stage of business except while a question is being put, while the ayes and noes are being called, while ballots are being counted or while a Senator is addressing the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 64.)

54. When executive communications shall be sent by the Governor to the Senate for their confirmation, the same shall be referred to the Committee on Rules, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, which motion shall be determined without debate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

The President and President Pro Tempore.

55. The President, President pro tempore, or senior member present, shall call the Senate to order at the hour stated, and if a quorum be present proceed with the order of business. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 2.)

56. The rooms, passages, and buildings set apart for the use of the Senate shall be under the control and direction of the President of the Senate, and he shall have the control and direction of the journals, papers, and bills of the Senate. He shall see that all officers of the Senate perform their respective duties, and may assign places to properly accredited newspaper representatives. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 7.)

57. In case of a disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobbies, the President (or Chairman of the Committee of the Whole) shall have the power to order the same cleared. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 70.)

58. The President shall have the right to name any Senator to perform the duties of the chair, who shall be vested, during such time, with all the powers of the President; but such substitute shall not lose the right of voting on any question while so presiding. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 7.)

59. All standing committees of the Senate shall be named by the President of the Senate unless otherwise ordered, and the first named shall be the chairman thereof. All other committees shall be appointed in such manner as the Senate shall determine. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 9.)

60. The President pro tempore shall, in the absence of the President, take the chair and call the Senate to order at the hour of the meetings of the Senate, and have the same power as the President; but the President pro tempore shall vote only as any other member of the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

62. The Secretary of the Senate shall not permit any records or papers to be taken from the desk, or out of his custody, by any person except a chairman of a committee; but he shall deliver any bill or paper to be printed to the Superintendent of State Printing, and all bills ordered engrossed or enrolled to the Committee on Engrossment and Enrollment, and take receipts therefor. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 25, last sentence.)

The Sergeant-at-Arms is authorized to arrest for contempt all persons outside the bar, or in the gallery, found in loud conversation, or otherwise making a noise to the disturbance of the Senate. The actual expenses of the Sergeant-at-Arms for every arrest, for each day's custody and release, and the traveling expenses for himself and special messenger going and returning shall be paid out of the contingent fund, and no other fees shall be paid him beyond his per diem. It shall also be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to keep the accounts for pay and mileage of Senators. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 26 and 27.)

65. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall place copies of all bills, joint and concurrent resolutions, constitutional amendments, and journals and histories, when printed, on the desks of Senators, at least one hour previous to the opening of session. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 26.)

66. It shall be the duty of the gatekeeper to prevent all persons, except Senators, ex-Senators, members of the Assembly, State officers, officers of the two houses, and such accredited newspaper representatives as have seats assigned to them by the President, from coming within the bar of the Senate, unless upon written invitation of the President or a Senator: provided, that no visitor shall be allowed upon the floor while the Senate is in session. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 68.)

(Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 75.)

71. Fifteen hundred copies of all bills shall be printed; and the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be required to certify to the reception by the Senate of all printed matter, and the quantity. One copy of each bill or paper printed by order of the Senate shall be delivered to each Senator at his desk, and the balance shall be distributed according to law. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 73.)

Every Senator and officer present shall keep secret all matters and proceedings concerning which secrecy shall be enjoined by order of the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

A less number than a quorum of the Senate is hereby authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person, for any and all absent Senators at the expense of such absent Senators, respectively, unless such excuse for nonattendance as shall be made to the Senate, when a quorum is convened, shall be judged sufficient, and in that case the expense shall be paid out of the Contingent Fund of the Senate; and this rule shall apply as well to the first convention of the Senate, at the legal time of meeting, as to each day of the session after the hour has arrived to which the Senate stood adjourned. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 82.)

INTRODUCTION OF JOINT RESOLUTION.

By Senator Nealon:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 1.

Relating to the exclusion of enemy-aliens from business enterprises.

WHEREAS, Instances have occurred during the recent great world war where citizens of the United States of America, called to the colors, were thus compelled to discontinue the business in which they were theretofore engaged; while others, who were exempt from service to the country by reason of their being enemy-aliens, were permitted to continue in business and enjoy the advantages thereof; and

WHEREAS, It is but fair that neither those of our citizens who went forth to render heroic service and sacrifice, nor they who, if permitted to serve, would gladly have welcomed the country's call, should be at any disadvantage or suffer by reason of the existence in the field of business of competitors who were not obliged to yield equal service with our fellow-countrymen when the ravages of war were upon us; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly. That our representatives in Congress be and are hereby memorialized to use their best efforts to the end that a federal statute be enacted prohibiting enemy-aliens from engaging in or conducting business of any kind whatever.

Resolution read, and ordered laid on the table, pending appointment of committees.

RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator Nealon:

At a critical time in the history of the human race, when the idealism of America dominates world thought, we, the Senate of the State of California, respectfully represent to our spokesman, the President of the United States, that in speaking for the self-determination of all nations, small as well as great, he should not overlook the claims of the oldest nation of western Europe, to wit, Ireland, in her just demand that the voice of the overwhelming majority of her people should be respected to the end that she be admitted as a commonwealth, free and self-determined, to the council chamber of the nations engaged in the reconstruction of the world.

Resolution read, and ordered laid on the table, pending appointment of committees.

Of article V of the constitution:

SEC. 4. The returns of every election for Governor shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government directed to the Speaker of the Assembly, who shall, during the first week of the session, open and publish them in the presence of both houses of the Legislature. The person having the highest number of votes shall be Governor; but in case any two or more have an equal and highest number of votes, the Legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, choose one of such persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor.

SEC. 15. A Lieutenant Governor shall be elected at the same time and place, and in the same manner, as the Governor, and his term of office and his qualifications of eligibility shall also be the same. He shall be President of the Senate, but shall have only a casting vote therein. If, during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President pro tempore of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease. The Lieutenant Governor shall be disqualified from holding any other office except as specially provided in this constitution, during the term for which he shall have been elected.

Of the Political Code:

1292. When an election has been held to fill the office of Governor or Lieutenant Governor, the clerk of each county, in addition to the abstract made for transmission to the Secretary of State, must as soon as the statement of the vote of his county is made out and entered upon the records of the boards of supervisors, make two certified abstracts of so much thereof as relates to the vote given for such officers.

1293. The clerk must seal up each abstract separately, and indorse thereon "Election returns for Governor and Lieutenant Governor."

1294. He must at once direct one copy to the Speaker of the Assembly next to meet, address it to Sacramento, California, and deposit it, postpaid, in the post office.

1295. The other copy he must direct and address, in the same manner, and at once deliver it to a member-elect of the Legislature, or to a Senator who holds over; and the person to whom it is so directed must deliver it to the Speaker on or before the second day next after his election.

1296. The returns for election for Governor and Lieutenant Governor must, during the first week of the session, be opened, canvassed, and the result declared by the Speaker of the Assembly, in presence of both houses.

1297. No declaration of the result, commission or certificate must be withheld on account of any defect or informality in the return of any election if it can with reasonable certainty be ascertained from such return what office is intended, and who is elected thereto.

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Governor according to the best of my ability.

PRESENTATION OF GOVERNOR WILLIAM D. STEPHENS.

Hon. Arthur H. Breed, President pro tempore of the Senate, then presented Governor William D. Stephens to the Joint Assembly; the Governor then delivered his inaugural address as follows:

SECOND INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR WILLIAM D. STEPHENS

To the members of the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California:

Conscious of the great honor conferred upon me by the people of California, grateful that they have reposed such trust in me, and realizing fully the difficulties and the responsibilities confronting me, I have taken an oath to serve all the people of this great State to the best of my ability.

You and I are to be fellow workers in the public service. Together we must face the perplexing problems which the future holds. These we must meet with courage, with sincerity and with unswerving devotion to the public good. Working in this spirit we can do much to promote the development and welfare of the people of this great State. I seek your help and co-operation and at all times it will be my pleasure to render to you all the assistance I can.

Since last I addressed the Legislature in joint assembly, a world war has been fought and won. Events have occurred of such momentous importance as to modify, if not completely to alter, the thought and purposes of men and women throughout the world.

The occasion of my last meeting with you in March, 1917, was to make provision for participation in the colossal struggle in which our country was soon to become involved. Those were days of grim determination, but California was ready with unflinching courage to meet the shock of the most brutal warfare that history has known.

With sad but proud hearts we gave the best of our young men for the front. More than 135,000 Californians donned Uncle Sam's uniform and went forth with resolute purpose to endure whatever of danger and of sacrifice was necessary to hasten the bright day of peace.

Quicker than we had dared to hope, that day of peace has dawned. Our brave defenders are coming back to us, and we look forward with joyous hearts to their return. Unhappily some who went will not come back. California's service flag will be emblazoned with two thousand stars of gold, and to the memory of those dead heroes we all join in tributes of honor and affection.

I am proud of the sound patriotism shown by our people at every stage of the war. California's war record is an inspiring object lesson of the triumph of popular government. Every call from Washington was answered promptly, and with a thoroughness that demonstrated the splendid, patriotic fervor of our people. Not once did California fail or even lag in the heavy demands made upon our resources and our man power.

Today we are face to face with the problems of peace. History records that the aftermath of war is usually a period of industrial depression. The sudden release of the soldiers and their restoration to the vocations from which they were called by the clang of war has caused some persons to fear that history will be repeated and that at least a temporary slackening of the country's industrial activities is inevitable.

But there is no occasion for even a shadow of gloom concerning the industrial situation. California is this moment at the threshold of the greatest industrial era in its history. What is needed most at this time is confidence in the future. Our people must devote themselves to the problems of peace with the same earnest zeal with which they devoted themselves to the problems of war. The surplus labor that may result from the transition from war-time to peace-time activities can and will be quickly absorbed. The tasks that were suspended when war was declared must now be taken up and carried forward promptly and intelligently. If that is done, there will be employment for everyone, and our people will at once begin to enjoy the real fruits of a well earned peace.

The successful termination of the war, toward which the United States in the last two years has made such stupendous contributions of men, of money and of materials, not only has provided for the security of free institutions and has made safe the honor and lives of the women and children of the world, but has rendered it imperative that popular government justify itself by demonstrating that a republican form of government is the best and most efficient government yet devised by man. It must be shown that such government imposes a minimum of burdens and provides a maximum of benefits—that the average industrious and right minded citizen, living under a government such as ours, not only enjoys a larger personal freedom than he would have under any other form of government, but that as well he is enabled to secure for himself and for his family a larger share of the necessities and the comforts of life. Popular government in its final analysis must be judged by the measure in which it promotes the happiness and the welfare of all the people.

It is reasonable to believe—and our own experience has proved—that when the people themselves arrange, order and control public institutions all secure greater benefits from government than when the people submit to the rule of the few who regard government primarily as an agency to serve their own special or private ends.

The terrific struggle through which we have just passed has humbled the despot and overthrown the tyrant. Kaiser and czar and king have been sloughed into the discard of the ages. With them has gone, or soon will go, each and every form of special privilege.

Neither birth, nor race, nor position, nor wealth will procure any immunity or unjust privilege for any person; but every human being, by virtue of his birthright, will stand equal before the law in every quarter of the globe.

In this world-trend toward democratic government every true American should find peculiar pride and gratification. In the great sisterhood of republics, the United States has furnished the inspiration and example and ever must retain first place.

California, the most truly democratic commonwealth in the Union, also greatly rejoices that the hope and aspiration of the honest, intelligent and right minded people of all lands, is to work out for themselves exactly such institutions as we have secured for ourselves.

But the very fact that California is the most truly democratic state in the Union, brings with it a sense of responsibility that may not be lightly regarded. The cause of popular government throughout the world, in some measure, will be advanced or retarded as we here work out our problems. We must see to it that nothing is done in California that will militate against the success of that great movement which embodies the aspirations of almost the entire human race. Rather must we so arrange and order our affairs that they may most successfully contribute to our own welfare and happiness and at the same time prove an inspiration and an encouragement to those in other lands who are striving to establish government by and for the people.

Our laws must be so just and fair and our institutions so beneficent that there will exist neither reason nor excuse for discontent. It is true that there does exist a treasonable propaganda directed against all order and against all law, which is wholly destructive and unreasoning, and which is a menace not only to honest labor, but threatens as well to plunge the whole human race back in the savagery and misery from which it sprang.

I refer to that anarchistic movement which in Europe is termed the Bolshevik and has its counterpart here in the so-called I. W. W. Some of these inciters of violence falsely claim to be acting in behalf of laboring men, an assertion which labor denies and resents. It is important that every person should understand that neither labor—organized or unorganized—nor any honest man who works either with his hands or with his brain, has anything in common with these skulking wielders of the torch and contemptible setters of time-explosions.

Unless vigorously punished and stamped out this evil thing will destroy labor as completely as it will destroy every other existing thing which is honest, and noble and right. We must not ignore this present danger. Not only must we visit the full weight of the law upon these lawless fiends, but we must meet their vicious propaganda with an aroused public sentiment. There is need for an organization to point out the falsities and the impossibilities of terrorist doctrines. In this work honest labor might well take the lead.

One phase of the labor problem which immediately concerns us is finding work for returning soldiers. It is our duty to provide employment for every one of our brave boys who was willing to die, if need be, that free government, such as ours, might live.

Happily, California is in position to furnish immediate employment upon the highways of the State. I have arranged with the Highway Commission that returning soldiers shall have preference and that work will be provided on the highways for every California soldier that needs it.

California owes much to its splendid women and many of our best laws and improved conditions are due directly to woman's participation in public affairs equally with men. It is fitting that the women of this State who live under the laws should have a voice in making these laws. For the first time women are sitting as members of the California Legislature. I desire to welcome them among us. I am sure their influence and their work will prove highly beneficial to the State.

The year just closed brought to an end a period of great strain, and of great sacrifice—a period which applied the acid test to character. At the commencement of this year we look forward to an era of peace and prosperity. With thanks to a Divine Providence who has guided us through the dark and fearful days of war, we enter upon our new duties with new courage, new hope and new resolve.

ADMINISTERING THE OATH OF OFFICE.

Hon. E. C. Hart, Justice of the District Court of Appeal, Third District, administered the oath of office to Lieutenant Governor-elect C. C. Young, as follows:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Lieutenant Governor according to the best of my ability.

PRESENTATION OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR C. C. YOUNG.

Hon. Arthur H. Breed, President pro tempore of the Senate, presented Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young to the Joint Assembly; the Lieutenant Governor then delivered his inaugural address as follows:

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR C. C. YOUNG.

To the members of the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California:

I do not know the origin of the custom which has decreed that the Lieutenant Governor-elect shall "deliver an address" at these inaugural ceremonies. To me it has always seemed that this day belongs peculiarly to the Governor, and that to him alone should be given the time and attention of an audience like this.

Inasmuch as custom has so decreed, however, and inasmuch as it is always easier to follow custom than to break it, I shall say a few words today, but not so much as an incoming Lieutenant Governor as an outgoing member of the Legislature.

LEGISLATIVE TENURE.

Ten years ago I first came to this Capitol Building as the most verdant of freshmen Assemblymen. Ten years has been a very short time in which to learn the business of legislation, and at the end of that ten years, though I have tried to apply myself as industriously as I could, I feel that I have made only a beginning in my attempts to learn it. Yet as I look over the rolls of both houses of this Legislature, I see the name of only one man of the entire one hundred and twenty who has been here for a longer period than I.

This is all wrong. Any commercial institution which would retain its oldest employees only ten or twelve years, and which would make an entire change in the majority of its employees every two years, would be an anomaly in the business world. And yet this is the legislative situation, not only in California, but, so far as I know, in every American State. It necessarily means government by amateurs as far as legislatures are concerned; and it is a splendid tribute to the genius for self-government on the part of the American people, and to the powers of adaptability on the part of American legislators, that under such circumstances the laws of our various States are anywhere nearly as good as they are.

I do not know what may be the remedy for this far too brief tenure of office of those elected to our legislatures. I suspect that this condition is only a part of an outworn and archaic legislative system, and that some day some State will overcome the inherent conservatism of its citizens as regards such matters, and will set an entirely new legislative model for other States to follow. That is exactly what has happened during the last twenty years in American municipal governments, and I believe we may look forward with confidence to a similar rational reorganization in the government of our States.

A POLITICAL REVOLUTION.

So much for theory. Now for a little history. I have said that my legislative experience covers only a brief ten years. Yet, brief as that time has been, it has been long enough to witness an entire political revolution in the State of California. "Revolution" is exactly the word, for it has meant an overturning of conditions where entrenched vested interests governed the State to a condition where the State governs these same vested interests—not only governs them, but governs them so well and so fairly that no sane man would think for a moment of returning to former conditions.

I have not the time, nor is it necessary in this presence, to review in any detail the splendid program of constructive legislation which has been enacted in California during the past eight years. It is all embodied in the governmental philosophy that the man is of more importance than the dollar, and that the true objects of government consist in the happiness and well-being of the people. This has meant putting the government completely into the hands of the people, and we in California have done this without fear and without reserve. Better a government administered by the people themselves, even though some of us may believe it is at times unwisely administered, than a government administered from without by a benignant corporate control.

SOME FORMER SESSIONS.

Those of us who were in the Legislature at the time will remember the session of 1911. We remember the legislative conferences which preceded that session, and the carefully prepared laws which were at that time written into our statutes. We remember also with pardonable pride the commendation given us at the close of that session by the splendid man whose untimely passing the Nation today so deeply mourns. It was in the evening of the very last day of the session of 1911 that Colonel Roosevelt addressed the members of the Legislature at a monster meeting in a neighboring city—I think the largest meeting of the kind I have ever attended. On that occasion he stated in effect that at its recent session the Legislature of California had enacted, in the way of constructive, humanitarian and progressive legislation, not only more and better laws than had been enacted during the current session by all the other States of the Union put together, but also more and better laws than had ever been enacted by any one State during the whole period of its existence. Words like these from a man like that are written too deep upon our memories for time to easily efface.

The session of 1913 was much like the session of 1911 along the lines of constructive accomplishment. Then it was that the phrase "freak legislation" was coined; and practically every one of the important bills of that session enacted into law was passed despite the vociferous cries of "freak measure" on the part of an ultra-conservative or a consciously or unconsciously subsidized press. To take a single illustration, we may recall the passage of the bill which has provided our present industrial accident relief—a measure which has grown to mean so much, not only to the employees, but also the employers of California. On the morning before this bill became a law, there was placed upon the desk of every Assemblyman a copy of that morning's issue of a metropolitan daily, a large portion of which was filled with violent denunciations of the proposed law, and of the unutterable harm it would do to our industrial system. Yet it is safe to say that this same daily, conservative as it is, would not now venture editorially to suggest a repeal, or even any fundamental modification, of this law.

SAFEGUARDING OUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

And so it is with most of our forward-looking legislation of the past eight years. Time has proved and is proving its inherent wisdom and justice. That we have made mistakes in various details is very true. We should not have been human had we not done so. Changing conditions, of course, will from time to time demand modifications and changes in many of these laws, but they must be changed by their friends and not by their enemies.

To be sure, there are a few—a very few—unfortunately more or less influential moulders of public sentiment which would, if they dared, undo all we have done, and put us back exactly where we were ten years ago. During all these years they have been insidiously endeavoring to poison the public mind against what they are pleased sneeringly to denominate "reform legislation." They are particularly active at the present time, and their present cry is directed at what they call the expensive character of the government—and this despite the fact that the great bulk of our expense is taken up by our excellently managed public institutions, our highways and our schools, where not a single dollar may be safely spared.

Economy in itself is a praiseworthy and necessary thing. Wherever money can be saved by readjustments which make for efficiency, such readjustments should, of course, be made. If we, as legislators, did not save to the State every dollar that is wastefully or extravagantly spent, we should have little right to be here. But if, at the behest of those whose real object is to wipe out all we have achieved, we wantonly cripple those achievements on the ostensible plea of saving money, our right to be here would still be less.

LEADERSHIP OF TWO GOVERNORS.

We have gone a long way forward in California—gone forward inspired by the hearty approval of a splendid people whose heart is fundamentally sound, whose ideals are fundamentally high. In fairness to that people, there must now be no backward step. We have made many of our advances under the far seeing and fearless leadership of one who has left our State to become a notable leader in the councils of the Nation. And we shall continue those advances under the wise and loyal leadership of the man upon this platform whom we today delight to honor. I take the liberty of quoting from one of Governor Stephens' published statements, words like these:

"During the past seven years our State has experienced a development, governmentally as well as economically, which in so short a time surpasses the history of like achievement in any other State. So long as I am Governor, there will be in California no lowering of the industrial and social standards which have been built up after so many years of struggle against greed, avarice and corporation tyranny."

It is to a Chief Executive bearing a message like this that I today am more than glad to pledge my hearty co-operation. To the members of the Assembly who have so generously honored me during the past six years by permitting me to preside in that body, and to the members of the Senate, where, by virtue of my new office, I am now called to preside, I wish to pay my sincere respects. I trust that we together are entering upon an administration which shall add new luster to California's record of the past eight years.

The coming four years will be years freighted with the problems incident to the establishment of a new world era. It is now the privilege of all of us to help solve these problems without taking a single backward step, or without lowering a single particle of those governmental ideals which upheld us in the past. To this service I now desire, with you, to dedicate myself.

PRESENTATION OF GOVERNOR WILLIAM D. STEPHENS.

Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, President of the Senate, then presented Governor William D. Stephens to the Joint Assembly; the Governor then delivered his first biennial message as follows:

FIRST BIENNIAL MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR WILLIAM D. STEPHENS.

To the Senate and Assembly:

In accordance with the provisions of the constitution, and following the precedent set by my predecessors, I transmit to you herewith my biennial message.

Since last we met in these halls events of the most tremendous importance have occurred. Issues involving the liberty, the happiness and the welfare of practically all the people comprising the various nations of the earth have been determined on the bloody battle fronts of Europe.

The greatest war in the world's history has been fought, and it has been settled for all time that Might shall not prevail against Right. The world has been made safe for free institutions and for free human beings. Despots have been deposed, hateful systems of government have been overturned, ancient wrongs have been righted, and the peoples of all lands now have it within their power to create for themselves beneficent institutions such as we here enjoy.

Our own Declaration of Independence has been extended so that the principles therein set forth have become applicable to the people of all lands. Henceforth, not only in America but throughout the world, government must be based upon the consent of the governed.

To the wonderful victory which has been won the United States made tremendous contributions of men, of money and of supplies. The work performed by our country, after entrance into the war, was truly marvelous and serves to disclose our vast resources, the boundless energy of our people, their genius for creating huge organizations and their unflinching patriotism and devotion to American ideals. All of us can well be proud of the part which the United States took in the great war.

California also has particular reason to feel proud of her record during the war. No less than 135,000 young men—the bravest and best the State had to give—entered the service of Uncle Sam and stood ready to make the supreme sacrifice, if need be, that we might govern ourselves wisely and sanely and continue to enjoy the blessings of free institutions and of liberty under the law.

To those of our brave sons who gave their lives that we might live, to those who were maimed or wounded, or suffered want or hardship; to those who served in any way, we owe a debt of gratitude which can not be repaid and never will be forgotten.

In every war activity California has done her whole part. There has been no appeal for money that has not been oversubscribed, and every service rendered to our defenders by the organized patriotism of the Nation, has found most enthusiastic support here.

At this moment when the representatives of the allied nations are preparing to assemble about the peace table, it would seem fitting that California's Legislature by appropriate resolution present to our President and those who may represent this Nation at the peace conference and to the Congress, our insistence that Germany be made to realize the awfulness of the crimes she committed and be compelled to make the fullest possible measure of restitution for the fearful havoc and destruction so deliberately and so cruelly inflicted.

It will be the duty of the Legislature, as it also will be the duty of Congress, immediately to direct attention to the problems of the returning soldiers. California must provide for the fullest cooperation with the national government in the care, rehabilitation and re-education of any who may return to us maimed or crippled, and must see to it that such are placed in appropriate occupations. Opportunity also must be given for those in sound health, to the end that all may become self-supporting and feel themselves secure in personal contentment and social happiness.

California can materially assist in providing homes for our valiant defenders. Large tracts of public lands in this State remain possible of reclamation and irrigation. There should be the closest co-operation between the federal and State governments in bringing these large tracts under reclamation and irrigation and of opening such lands to settlement on long-time payments and with provision for credit for improvements.

With pardonable pride I call attention to the fact that since I became Chief Executive, California has taken up in a practical way the question of land settlement. It was the first state to do so, and the Land Settlement Board of this State did much of the pioneer work in the movement which since has been taken up by the federal government and by certain of the states.

The Land Settlement Board of California already has demonstrated that it is practical to purchase large tracts of privately-owned lands, to bring them under irrigation, subdivide them into small tracts, and sell them to settlers upon long-time credit without loss to the State. It is highly desirable that the State carry forward these development and settlement projects to the fullest possible extent, either on its own account or in co-operation with the federal government, and that soldiers and sailors be given the preference in the purchase of such lands.

It is manifest that the State must interest itself in the further development and impounding of water for irrigation purposes. The federal government offers substantial encouragement and with our co-operation great areas of arid lands in California can be brought under the intense cultivation that has already marked so signally the progress of our State.

If legislation is sought to carry forward local or district projects we should give careful and considerate attention. We should not fail to give an expression of our desire to co-operate with the federal government and of our strong approval of the policy that is being advocated in Washington for land development in the West.

Coincident with irrigation expansion will come the development of our wonderful hydroelectric resources. The development of this power will prove a great stimulus to industrial activity. California, by reason of its nearness to the high Sierras, should have the cheapest electrical power in America, and this, together with its unfailing supply of raw materials and its easy access by cheap water transportation to the great markets of the world, should render this, in time, one of the greatest manufacturing states in the Union.

Immediate employment for our returning men may be provided by pushing forward, with utmost speed, the completion of the state highways, for which the people have already voted bonds. The various uncompleted links in the great highways, traversing from north to south the coast and the interior of the State, should be finished as speedily as possible. On this necessary work employment can be found for every California soldier who does not secure other work immediately, upon his return.

Not only should the main highways extending the length of the State be pushed to early completion, but I would suggest the advisability of constructing a highway connecting points in our great Central Valley with the coast. And it is to be hoped that every encouragement of law will be given to counties and to road districts for the development of lateral roads. In this day when farmers till their fields with implements propelled by gas engines and haul their crops in auto trucks, even the old-fashioned country road serving only the need of local residents, has assumed an importance never attached to it heretofore. If there are needed changes in road laws to permit small groups of farmers to provide themselves with rural roads such changes should be carefully considered.

One of the early problems resulting from demobilization of the Army and Navy will be industrial readjustment. Many industries and many occupations now are wholly dependent upon a continuation of warfare. These industries must be changed over so as to supply the needs of peace and in these and other peace-time trades must the workers be well paid and well protected. The foundations of our new industries of peace must be broad enough to care not only for the workers in war industries, but for returning soldiers as well.

The problems of labor are among the most important with which we have to deal. Labor is entitled to receive a larger share of the profits of industry than heretofore it has obtained. The rights of labor must not be abridged or impaired. The high mark set by the Legislature of California in the enactment of just and humane laws respecting labor must be maintained. There should be no lowering of the social and industrial standards which have been written into our laws after years of struggle against greed and avarice. Every law which hereafter shall concern the relations either of labor or of capital should be based upon principles of even and exact justice.

Among the advocates of the ruthless exercise of industrial destruction, without regard for principles of right and justice, stand the false friends of honest labor, those cowardly and disloyal industrial terrorists, the so-called I. W. W. element. These Huns of Industry seek the destruction of every honest impulse and of every fair and just rule which men out of their age-long experience have created for their mutual benefit. These terrorists do not represent labor, but are the bitter enemies of all honest workers. During the war they did all in their power to aid the enemy. They must be suppressed with a determined hand, and I would recommend the enactment of such stringent legislation as will aid and assist the officers of the law in more effectively dealing with this law-defying element.

The government of California must be both efficient and economical. A government that is not economical—that does not receive full value for every dollar expended—lacks something in efficiency. The services rendered by the government of California to the people of California are very great. While the people of this State, without doubt, directly receive greater benefits from their government than do the people of any other commonwealth, it also is true that the cost of government has materially increased. This increase has occasioned criticism in some quarters, particularly where insufficient consideration has been given to the many and most material benefits conferred by our State government.

Recognizing that the people should have an exact knowledge of what they get for every dollar spent for governmental purposes, I have caused a survey of our various administrative boards and commissions to be made by a committee of citizens and officials. This committee will make a critical examination of the powers, duties and internal organization of all boards and commissions, and will ascertain to what extent their powers and duties may overlap and what economies may be effected without impairing the quality of the service.

Without anticipating the report of the committee I am convinced that economies can be effected through the better organization and co-ordination of these great administrative agencies. As I pointed out to the members of the committee, the government of California has been reconstructed in the last few years, during which time we have experienced a development along social, humanitarian and industrial lines which surpasses the achievement of any other state. Exactly the same results, however, follow in governmental development as follow expansion in private business; and as in private business, after growth and development, we now must remove all extraneous and unnecessary expense and practice the strictest economy in carrying on the State's activities. As I said to the committee I now say to your honorable bodies, that if there be debris and structural staging, necessary to the work of building, but unnecessary and expensive to proper maintenance, such nonessentials must be removed.

On the other hand I have no sympathy whatever with the cry for a reduction of expenditures to a point which would destroy the highly beneficial service now rendered to the people of the State. It is not particularly important whether the government of California costs more or less per capita than that of some other states. The problems of these other states are not our problems. If they care to spend less than we do for the education of the young, for the safety and protection of working men and working women, for the care and operation of public institutions, for the building of highways, and for the safeguarding of person and property, that is their own concern. A state which is too parsimonious to render services that the people have a right to expect is not entitled to special commendation.

The problem which confronts us is this: The people of California have demanded that their government shall render certain services and perform certain work. Those services and that work are being performed. The people have a right, as well, to expect and demand that the costs be kept at the lowest possible point consistent with good service. That demand is wholly reasonable, and it is our business to see to it that the wish of the people in this respect, as well as in all other things, is carried into effect.

In the promotion of governmental efficiency, the need of the revision of the constitution of our State is outstanding. I am convinced that the people realize that such a step is imperative, and that now is an acceptable time to initiate a proposal for a constitutional convention in order that it may be voted upon at the next general election.

The only hesitancy heretofore in taking such a step has been the concern that the important amendments such as those providing for the initiative, referendum and recall; the direct primary; the reorganization of the State Railroad Commission, and other important amendments, should not be placed in jeopardy. We have, however, passed the period of such a danger. Those provisions have now become thoroughly fundamental. They are securely established beyond the range of successful attack, and we may now safely proceed with the rewriting of the State's constitution. I therefore submit to you a bill which, if passed, will give you the opportunity to submit to the people the question of calling a constitutional convention.

During the period of the war the people of the United States cheerfully bore new and heavy burdens of taxation imposed by federal authority. For many years to come the national government will be compelled to levy heavy taxes to care for our great war debt. In view of this heavy and unusual burden of taxation, made necessary by the war, it is but fair and just that the State and the various subdivisions of government hold expenditures to the lowest possible point consistent with good service, particularly until such time as the extraordinary drain occasioned by the war shall be terminated.

In view of the fact that the federal and many of the state governments are levying taxes upon inheritances, and that it may be expected that more and more the federal government will seek a large share of its revenue from sources now taxed by the State, one of the most important subjects to be worked out in the immediate future is the devising of a uniform system of taxation and for the co-relating of State and National tax levies and collections.

One of the suggestions widely discussed by the National Tax Association last year at Atlanta, Georgia, was that one tax should be levied upon inheritances and that should be by federal authority, a certain portion of the collected tax—preferably one-half—being turned over by the national government to the State in which the property is located. Such an arrangement would result in uniformity in estate taxation throughout the Union. I would respectfully suggest that by appropriate resolution your honorable bodies express your views concerning the course you believe the National Congress should take in this matter.

At the last session of the Legislature a law was enacted providing that no governing body of any political subdivision in the State should, in any year, make tax levies which in the aggregate would produce an amount more than five per cent in excess of the amount produced by tax levies made thereby during the year immediately preceding, except by the consent of a State Board of Authorization, consisting of the State Controller, the Chairman of the State Board of Control, the Chairman of the State Board of Equalization, one member of the State Board of Control and one other person in the State service to be appointed by the Governor.

I approved this bill because I believed that it would check expenditures and decrease waste and extravagance. A referendum petition was filed against the bill for the reason that many persons feared that it would prohibit necessary increases in taxes levied for the support of schools.

In the last election the bill was defeated. I am still of the opinion that the principle of such limitation on taxes levied is a proper one, and I recommend that the bill be re-enacted with such provisions as will prevent its operation as a detriment to the maintenance of the schools.

Because of the influenza epidemic a grave problem confronts our public schools. It has been found necessary to close them for long periods in many places and attendance in general has been greatly diminished throughout the State. As a result of this situation there will be a large decrease in the average daily attendance, upon which, under the present law, the support of the public schools is based.

I feel that we should do everything possible to maintain the integrity of our school system and to that end I commend to you legislation which will give the schools support based upon an average daily attendance which may be estimated from the attendance and increases of recent years.

While the women of California for several years have enjoyed political equality with men, it was not until the emergency created by the war that women demonstrated they were entitled also to be accorded full industrial equality. It is to be hoped that soon everywhere it will be recognized that women are entitled to equal pay with men for equal service. Also in matters which will come before the Legislature it should not be forgotten that women have fully earned by their own accomplishments, every political, civil and industrial right that men possess.

For the first time in the history of the State, women will serve as members of the California Legislature, and I am sure that the public welfare will be greatly promoted by this direct participation of women in the making of laws. Ever since women have had the ballot they have exercised a healthy and desirable influence upon legislation. That influence always has been exercised in behalf of fair and just measures. Many of our best laws are directly due to the fact that women have the ballot. Now that they not only vote but as well directly assist in making the laws we may be certain that there will be still further improvement in our laws and in our institutions.

One of the important subjects which will come before you will be the ratification of the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. Believing as I do, that the welfare of every human being will be greatly promoted by the total extinction of the liquor traffic, I hope that California will have the proud distinction of being one of the early states to vote approval of this amendment. Within a few weeks the necessary number of states will have ratified the amendment, and I respectfully but none the less strongly urge ratification here at the earliest possible moment.

Firm in the conviction that our direct primary law should be strengthened wherever possible, I desire to call your attention to a needed change in that law. The members of every political party should be secure in their right to have upon the ballot in the general election a candidate of their own choosing. The recent primary election demonstrated a vital defect in the present law, and steps should be taken to have that defect corrected at once.

With the conclusion of the war there has come an end to the activities of the State Council of Defense, and its various county branches. The work performed by that body and the patriotic organizations, national and State, associated with it in co-ordinating war activities, in collecting accurate data, in developing the productive power of the State, in guarding against hostile propaganda, in preventing selfish and unscrupulous persons from taking advantage of the patriotic impulses of the people and in directing into the most practical channels the energies of those who wished to assist in winning the war, has been such as to command the lasting gratitude of all our people.

Allow me to express the gratification that I feel over the zeal and ability with which our various agencies of State government have been conducted. My responsibility for a proper administration of the laws leads to an exacting attitude towards those who directly administer them. I insist that there shall be the same standard of diligence and accomplishment in the public business as in private business. I am happy to say that in the twenty-one months that I have been Governor the businesses have been rare in which this high plane of endeavor to serve the public has not been maintained. Where this energy and faithful purpose that characterizes our State government has not been maintained I have not hesitated to correct the shortcoming.

More and more do we see the great benefits accruing from the death blow given to the spoils system by the introduction of civil service. Merit is the only determining standard. I am frank to say that it is a matter of keen satisfaction and pleasure to me as Governor to work with such a splendid body of men and women who are possessed in unusual degree of the ideals and the resolution to make of our State government what the people of California desire it to be—clean and effective, and inspired with the aim and purpose to render service for the public welfare.

We owe a warm word of appreciation to the patriotic men and women in the State service for their loyal and indefatigable zeal during the war. It is literally true that clerks and stenographers and heads of many departments remained at their desks through long days and nights when so many tremendous responsibilities suddenly devolved upon us. For many months there was no such thing as a holiday in some of our offices. We found that our departments contained men and women of initiative and of strength to meet the critical situation for which there had been little preparation. Everyone was eager to do his part to help the people of California meet the shock of war and to attain that record of achievement which it did attain and of which we are so proud.

I look forward to happy service in behalf of the people of California. My task will be easier and my opportunity all the greater because of the high character of the men and women by whom our governmental work is being carried on.

Wherever our high mark of requirement is not fulfilled I shall continue to be exacting. Wherever it is maintained there will be that hearty co-operation on our part that seeks its only reward in the satisfaction of work well done and in the appreciation the people of California are so ready to show to those who faithfully serve them.

I will later submit a report to you from the Efficiency Commission regarding various agencies of the State government. Meantime there are available for your perusal and study the printed reports required by law.

WHEREAS, At the recent general election held in this State there was squarely presented to the people for their decision, by popular referendum, the question of adopting total prohibition as a state-wide enactment; and

WHEREAS, The expressed will of the people, as shown by an overwhelming majority of votes, is opposed to such a drastic measure; and

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the settling of this question by a direct submission thereof to the electorate for their opinion thereon, the proponents of the measure threaten to ask the forthcoming legislative session to override the people's wishes by demanding a ratification of the pending federal prohibition amendment, which is the enactment in another form of the proposition which has so recently been rejected; and

WHEREAS, Under a representative republican form of government it is the duty of all legislators, as the people's representatives, to set aside their personal opinions, and to vote in accordance with the wishes of all the people who may be affected thereby; and

WHEREAS, Total prohibition within this State is not a mere local or personal question, but one which affects the people of the entire State rather than the constituencies which have elected their several representatives to the legislature and the State Legislature is morally bound to follow the expressed desires of a majority of all the people; and

WHEREAS, We view the threatened attempt to set at naught the people's demands as a violation of the principles of free government that the majority shall rule; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, that we request the San Francisco legislative delegation and petition the other members of the Legislature to respect the will of the people upon this question and to vote against prohibition in any form as being violative of the expressed desire of a majority of the electors at the polls.

NOTICE OF MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

Senator McDonald gave notice that on the next legislative day he would move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Senator Chamberlin asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following explanation of his vote on Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 printed in the Journal:

The importance which has been given the resolution now under consideration justifies me in taking the floor at this time to briefly and carefully declare my position and vote.

The few remarks that I have to make are not made in the hope or with the intention of changing or influencing a single vote. I confidently believe that votes on this measure were determined before the last election in several instances. Were it not so, the personnel of both houses might be otherwise than it is, for some members preferred pre-election pledges to election contests.

I regret that an important question of this kind will not be submitted directly to the whole people of our great State because those who are its sponsors either do not consider that course fair, politic, or advisable. I would gladly support such a procedure.

The ratification of the so-called Sheppard federal constitutional prohibition amendment was not an issue in my campaign of two years ago, nor was it, in my opinion, the real issue in any campaign, the result of which I would feel honestly justified in accepting as conclusive or even persuasive evidence of the temper of the people of the Thirty-first Senatorial District. For it is to them alone that I hold myself answerable.

In the election of candidates, party nominations and personalities must be conceded as contributing very largely towards the vote they receive. What part may be attributed to their open and avowed declaration on this or any other measure, and what part may be credited to their party nomination and personality is, of course, beyond honest and impartial calculation.

It will be noted that the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, whose opposition to this measure is and was well known, was elected by a larger majority than either the candidates for Governor or Lieutenant Governor.

The statement is made that the people of California have voted upon the question of prohibition and that the Legislature is bound thereby. While not doubting the responsibility of the Legislature to the State of California as a whole in many matters, the question now under consideration, I believe, is one in which the constituency of each individual member is peculiarly interested and entitled to the fullest consideration.

If, therefore, there is any vote of my district upon this or any similar question by which the will of the majority of my constituents upon the question of the liquor traffic may be ascertained, it is that vote that will guide me in my vote today.

Both in 1916 and 1918, the people of my district voted upon the question of state prohibition. And certainly if the people of my district favor or oppose state prohibition, certainly they favor or oppose national prohibition, as the case may be.

The vote, then, of my district in 1916 and 1918 upon total prohibition I consider as an expression of opinion of those to whom I am answerable, upon the question of prohibition.

And let me state here in passing that not a single constituent of my district, with one exception, has solicited or even inquired about my vote upon this measure. That single exception is my good wife, to whom I am everlastingly indebted, who took enough interest in me and my vote upon this measure to spend hours of hard work compiling the vote of my district in 1916 and 1918, upon which I will base my vote.

The vote on state-wide prohibition in 1916 in my district was: Yes—22,310, No—24,551; or a majority "wet" vote of 2,241, a truly representative vote when it is known that the total registration of the district is not over 50,000.

In 1918, the vote upon state-wide prohibition was: Yes—10,712, No—10,689; or a "dry" majority of 23 votes, a decidedly light vote and in my opinion not a controlling criterion, which is admitted by those favoring ratification.

The vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor in 1918 was as follows:

Stephens	14,917
Bell	9,636
Young	13,071
Snyder	10,227

The declaration of members of the Senate that they are "dry" I have taken, not as a declaration of principle, but rather an invitation for some one to buy them a drink!

I am not a friend of the open saloon, and this is not an anti-saloon measure; if it were, my vote would be different; nor am I pledged to either side in this controversy. Nor does the certainty of the passage of this resolution affect my vote.

I approach this vote without political aspirations or obligation, but with a clear conscience, a full realization of its importance to California and her industries, and thank God, the courage of my convictions.

And when the roll is called, I will vote "No," and when the roll is called up yonder, I will be there!

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Senator Rush asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following explanation of his vote on Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 printed in the Journal:

I voted against Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, because the vote on the principle of prohibition was in the negative in both of the counties in my district at the election last November.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Senator Duncan asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have printed in the Journal the following explanation of his vote on the motion to reconsider the vote whereby Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 was adopted:

In casting my vote against Senator McDonald's motion to reconsider this resolution, I am establishing no precedent which I will hereafter recognize.

One of the pleasantest things in service in this branch of the government is the fine courtesy and consideration shown by the members to each other, known as "Senatorial courtesy."

The present instance warrants a departure from the general rule, solely because the prevalence of influenza renders it necessary that final action upon this matter be had with the utmost promptness.

Hon. C. C. Young, President of the Senate, Capitol, Sacramento, California:

San Francisco Labor Council, representing sixty-five thousand affiliated working-men and women, respectfully urge the California Legislature to memorialize Congress to pass without delay the pending constitutional amendment to grant suffrage to women, thereby affording the forty-third session opportunity to ratify said amendment.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 12, 1919.

Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, State Capitol, Sacramento, California:

National American women's suffrage associations, California Suffrage Ratification Committee, including fifty-five women leaders of the State, beg you to use your influence to get out of committee suffrage resolution urging Congress to pass federal suffrage amendment. Eastern suffragists surprised and disappointed that California has delayed this resolution. Jeopardizes congressional passage amendment this session. Kansas, Michigan, New Hampshire, Colorado have passed resolution. Colorado suspended rules and put straight through. Our resolution backed by state and district women's clubs, Congress Mothers and other organizations and sixty-five thousand union men.

Respectfully,

MRS. ROBERT ARMSTRONG, Dean.

Also:

NEW YORK, N. Y., January 12, 1919.

Honorable President of the Senate, State House, Sacramento, California:

We, the undersigned, speaking for the fourth largest industry in the United States and for thousands of citizens whose personal liberty, means of livelihood and property rights will be affected by your legislative vote upon the Sheppard prohibition amendment, respectfully submit that the adoption of that amendment would in a single blow wipe out the entire personal fortunes of men in many states who have offended only in engaging and investing in a business which the government has incited and from which the whole people through the government have been taking hundreds of millions of dollars of property annually. In the exercise of our rights as American citizens, we respectfully request a hearing by your Legislature before it votes upon the Sheppard prohibition amendment. Will you please wire collect to James Woods, Chairman, 334 Fifth Avenue, New York City, advising date when your Legislature will consider this question and when our representative may be heard?

W. N. ROBINSON, President American Hotel Association.

GEO. A. FARNHAM, President New York State Hotel Association.

THOS. D. GREEN, President New York Hotel Association.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Senator Crowley:

WHEREAS, In the death of Eugene D. Sullivan, a former member of the Assembly, the State of California has sustained the loss of one of its most conscientious citizens; a man faithful, loyal and sympathetic in his friendships; honest, conscientious and painstaking in his performance of duty; always worthy of the confidence reposed in him; reliable in every respect; and

WHEREAS, His work as a public servant was constructive and enduring, and his professional life was an expression of the highest integrity and the loftiest ethical conceptions; in his private life and in his intimate associations of friends he made manifest his true greatness of heart and soul; genial, loving, and unselfish by nature, he drew very close to him all who were privileged to associate with him, and especially, therefore, are we mindful of the immeasurable loss sustained by those closest to him in family relationships; and to his family so sorely bereaved we extend a heartfelt sympathy, hoping that there may be given to them some comfort in the thought that the loved one departed is held in loving esteem by those who were his associates in the discharge of public duty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That when the Senate shall next day adjourn, it shall do so in respect to the memory of Eugene D. Sullivan; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to convey to the family of the deceased this expression of tribute from the Senate of California.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 3.

Relative to endorsement of the amendment to the national constitution known as the "Federal Suffrage Amendment."

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California by joint resolution at its last session urged upon the Congress of the United States the passage of the amendment to the national constitution known as the "Federal Suffrage Amendment," as a matter of justice to the women of our nation who have labored and sacrificed side by side with the men in the world struggle for liberty and democracy; and

WHEREAS, Said federal suffrage amendment has been passed by the House of Representatives and now awaits the action of the Senate; be it therefore

Resolved, That, profoundly appreciative of the dignity and ability with which the women of this State have used their right to the ballot, and so more than ever cognizant that sex discrimination in the granting of the franchise has no place in modern civilization, and realizing as never before how entirely the welfare of our nation depends upon the material, moral and spiritual activities of its men and women alike, the Legislature of the State of California urges upon the Senate of the United States at once to pass the federal suffrage amendment, that it may be submitted to the legislatures of the various states, to the end that before the next presidential election the nation's women may enter upon the rights and duties of the franchise on the same basis as its men.

STATEMENT OF PARDONS, COMMUTATIONS AND REPRIEVES.

Granted by Governor Hiram W. Johnson and Governor William D. Stephens for period of 1917-1919; transmitted to the Legislature by Governor William D. Stephens in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

In accordance with section 1 of article VIII of the constitution of California, I hereby transmit to you a list of the cases of pardon, commutation and reprieve granted by me during the term of my office and by Governor Johnson during the period from January 1, 1917, to the time of his resignation. The list is as follows:

PARDONS GRANTED BY GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

FRANK W. ESOLA was pardoned January 1, 1917. He was convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of grand larceny and sentenced on June 14, 1914, to serve a term of five years in Folsom. Judge F. H. Dunne of San Francisco and James F. Brennan, Assistant District Attorney, joined in a recommendation that he be pardoned. He had made a good record on parole and Warden Smith of Folsom also recommended that he should be pardoned in order that his full rights of citizenship might be restored.

N. F. SIERING was pardoned January 4, 1917. He was convicted in Mariposa County of passing a fictitious check and sentenced on May 1, 1909, to serve a term of two and one-half years in San Quentin. His term expired on January 1, 1917. His pardon was recommended by Superior Judge Trabucco of Mariposa County who, as District Attorney of Mariposa County, prosecuted him, and by the Advisory Pardon Board. He had made a good record on parole.

EDWARD C. MILES was pardoned on January 4, 1917. He was convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of grand larceny and sentenced on September 1, 1914, to serve a term of five years in San Quentin. Judge Dunne, who sentenced him, the Advisory Pardon Board and Chief Justice Angelotti of the Supreme Court joined in recommending pardon.

CHARLES R. A. SWAILE was pardoned on January 5, 1917. He was convicted in San Diego County of placing an explosive near a dwelling house with intent to injure human beings and was sentenced on January 15, 1910, to serve a term of twenty years in San Quentin. He was released on parole after four years. Judge Guy of San Diego County recommended pardon on the ground that the sentence had been more severe than he would have made it had he known at the time of the sentence facts which later developed. Swaile made a good record on parole and his pardon was recommended by the Advisory Pardon Board.

At time of commutation Kelly had served six months in state prison. Judge Lewis, who sentenced him, and District Attorney Schuermeyer, who prosecuted him, both recommended that he be given early parole. The law governing paroles made it impossible to parole until one year had been served. His family and a new-born babe were absolutely destitute and Warden Johnston of San Quentin recommended that sentence be terminated.

T. J. GARWOOD, commuted December 23, 1918, to term of fifteen years. He was convicted in April, 1909, in Los Angeles County of robbery and sentenced to serve a life sentence at Folsom Prison. Considerable doubt had arisen as to Garwood's guilt by reasons of statements made by alleged accomplices in the crime to the effect that he had nothing whatever to do with it. Commutation recommended by four Justices of the Supreme Court and Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, who imposed the sentence.

THOS. D. HUNN, commuted December 24, 1918, to term ending immediately. He was convicted in Siskiyou County of assault to commit murder and was sentenced on May 4, 1914, to serve a term of eleven years in San Quentin Prison. Such officers shall proceed as continuously as possible to the office of the registrar of voters. Immediately upon the delivery of such ballot box to the registrar of voters or his deputy, said registrar shall cause each such box to be plainly labeled with the correct number of the precinct in which such ballots were cast. The registrar of voters shall in such manner as he shall deem best calculated to provide competent persons, select and provide as many persons as he may deem necessary for the counting, tallying and certifying of returns of the vote cast in each precinct, and such persons shall have the qualifications required for election officers at State elections, save that all persons who are employed in the department of elections, or who report for service from the civil service of the city and county, shall, if not a candidate at such election, be qualified, save that none of the persons so selected need reside in a particular precinct. The persons so selected and provided shall be segregated by the registrar of voters or his deputies into counting boards respectively to consist of three persons each, and each such selected counting board shall proceed to count and tally such ballots by precincts separately under the direction of the registrar of voters or his deputies or such superintendents as the registrar of voters may direct, in the same manner provided by law for counting, tallying and certifying ballots at State elections except as herein otherwise provided. The form of tally sheets shall be provided and determined by the registrar of voters, and there shall be a certificate at the end thereof to the effect that the foregoing is the correct result of the election in such precinct, and such certificate shall be signed by the three persons who completed such tally list and return. The registrar of voters or any deputy empowered by him by writing may excuse or dismiss any person from any such counting board at pleasure and enforce such order and substitute any person so provided by the registrar of voters in the place of any person so excused, dismissed, or who absents himself from said counting board. Any person acting on any such counting board who shall refuse to obey any lawful order of the registrar or his deputy shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The tally sheets shall be in duplicate, kept by two clerks, and one copy upon the completion thereof shall be sealed and signed across the flap in the manner provided by the laws of the State of California for sealing tally lists where votes are counted at the precinct, and the other tally list shall remain open for inspection in the office of the registrar of voters. The returns so sealed shall be securely kept by the registrar until produced before the board of election commissioners for official canvass in the manner provided by law.

The registrar of voters shall fix the compensation to be paid to each member of such respective counting boards for counting, tallying, completing and certifying such votes and returns, which compensation shall not exceed five cents to each member of such board respectively for each ballot so counted, tallied, completed and certified, and such claims and demands when certified by the registrar or his deputy and presented to the board of election commissioners shall be allowed in open session, and the auditor shall audit and the treasurer pay such claims out of the general fund. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of the laws of the State of California applicable to State elections or State election officers, and such laws relating to the official canvass and declaration of the result of State election returns shall apply to the counting, tallying, certifying, sealing, custody and official canvass of the ballots and returns counted and returned under the provisions of this chapter. If there shall not be room enough in the department of elections for the counting of said votes, the registrar of voters may cause such counting to proceed in any place under the control of the city and county which may be obtained by him for such purpose, provided, that a notice of the location of such place be conspicuously displayed in the department of elections. Said votes shall be counted in a place open to the public, and the boards counting the same shall enter the total number thereof on the tally sheets provided therefor. They then shall count and enter the number of the first, second and third choice votes for each candidate on said tally sheet and make returns thereof to the board of election commissioners as herein required. The canvass must be public, in the presence of bystanders and must be continuous, without adjournment, until completed and the result thereof is declared. Any candidate shall be entitled to a representative among the bystanders.

The provisions of this chapter relating to counting the ballots shall not apply to a special municipal election at which a proposition or propositions, or question or questions, only is, or are, voted upon; but the ballots at all such special elections shall be counted at the respective polling places and returned by the precinct election boards under the laws applicable to such elections.

(b) If a ballot contain more than one vote for the same candidate, only the one of such votes highest in rank shall be counted. If a ballot contain either first or second or third choice votes for any office in excess of the number of places to be filled for such office no vote for that office in the column showing such excess shall be counted.

(c) Paragraph (b) of this section shall be printed conspicuously on the tally sheet.

(d) Candidates receiving a majority of the first choice votes for any office shall be elected. If the full number of candidates to be elected do not receive such a majority of the first choice votes for such office, a canvass shall then be made of the second choice votes received by those candidates for said office who are not elected by first choice votes; said second choice votes shall be added to the first choice votes received by such candidates and candidates who by such addition shall receive a majority shall be elected.

(e) If by the count of either first choice votes or first and second choice votes, as above provided, more candidates than there are offices to be filled shall receive a majority, the candidate or candidates equal in number to the number of offices to be filled having the highest vote shall be elected.

(f) If the full number of candidates to be elected do not receive a majority by adding first and second choice votes, as above directed, a canvass shall then be made of the third choice votes received by those candidates for said office who are not elected, either by first choice votes or by adding first and second choice votes. Said third choice votes shall be added to the first and second choice votes received by such candidates, and the candidates, equal in number to the number of offices remaining to be filled, who receive the highest number of votes by said addition shall be elected.

(g) The above subdivisions (d), (e) and (f) shall be applied and carried out in the making of the official canvass and the declaration of the official result.

Before granting any such permit or revoking a permit already granted, the applicant or person holding such permit shall be entitled to be heard before said board in person or by counsel. Such permits shall distinctly state the name of the person to whom the same is given, the character of business or calling to be conducted and a description or designation of the premises where such business is to be so conducted. Subdivision 43-A. The devise and bequest of Ignatz Steinhart, deceased, of the sum of $250,000 for the erection and completion of an aquarium to be located in Golden Gate Park in the city and county of San Francisco for the use and enjoyment of the people of the city and county of San Francisco, the management, superintendence and operation of which is to be in charge and under the direction of the California Academy of Sciences of San Francisco, is hereby accepted, said devise and bequest being as follows:

"It being my earnest desire, to provide the citizens of San Francisco with an aquarium to be erected in the Golden Gate Park of said city, and to be called the 'Steinhart Aquarium'; and provided such an aquarium has not heretofore been constructed or placed in operation by me or any other party or parties, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to the California Academy of Sciences of San Francisco, the sum of ($250,000) two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, for the erection and completion of an aquarium to be located in the Golden Gate Park of said city of San Francisco, and adjacent or adjoining to the new buildings and museum of said Academy of Sciences in said park and—

Subject to the following conditions:

I. Said aquarium, as aforementioned, to be called the Steinhart Aquarium, and a bronze bust or statue of my brother, Sigmund Steinhart, now deceased, but joint donor with me, to be erected and displayed in some convenient place in said aquarium building.

II. The location, plans and specifications as also of the appurtenances and installations therein, to be submitted to my executors and to be approved by same.

III. The final cost of said aquarium not to exceed to my estate the sum of said $250,000 aforementioned, to be certified to by the original officials of said Academy of Sciences and the architect selected for the construction of said aquarium.

IV. The management, superintendence and operation of said aquarium to be in charge and under the direction of said Academy of Sciences; and I expect that the necessary funds for the maintenance and operation of said aquarium will be furnished by the city of San Francisco for the benefit of the inhabitants thereof or others, who may enjoy said aquarium or derive knowledge and information therefrom.

In case, however, during my lifetime an aquarium should have been erected and exist, in said Golden Gate Park, then said bequest of $250,000 is to be null and void and hereby cancelled.

And in lieu thereof, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to said Academy of Sciences the sum of ($150,000) one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, for the enlargement and extension of the aquarium then existing. I would suggest that a terrarium and exhibit of insects be installed in said enlarged aquarium. Location plans and specifications for the latter, are likewise to be approved by my executors, and conditions and clauses I to IV heretofore mentioned, should as far as feasible and practical apply to said bequest of $150,000 for said enlargement and extension of said aquarium."

The board of supervisors is hereby empowered to pass any ordinance necessary to carry into full force and effect the terms, conditions and provisions of said devise and bequest, to accept any further gifts of money, properties or buildings for the extension or support of said Steinhart Aquarium, under the management, superintendence and operation of the California Academy of Sciences of San Francisco and to authorize the expenditure of such sum of money as shall be appropriated from the general fund of the city and county of San Francisco under the provisions of subdivision 43, section 1, chapter II, Article II of the charter through the California Academy of Sciences of San Francisco for the support and maintenance of said Steinhart Aquarium under such regulations as said board of supervisors may prescribe by ordinance.

If the mayor shall concur in said recommendation he shall report the same to the board of supervisors and said board shall make such sale in the manner provided

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6.

Relative to the education of our youth for service in the American merchant marine.

WHEREAS, The growth and development of the American merchant marine prior to the Civil War was without parallel in the history of commerce, our national maritime spirit was equal to every demand, American ships and American seamen were known in every part of the world the United States was the mistress of the seas, manning her peerless clipper ships with her own sons and carrying more than ninety per cent of all national exports and imports in her own bottoms; and

WHEREAS, As the result of the Civil War, the change from wood to iron, and our unpreparedness for that change either economically or politically, our country's proud merchant marine in a short period shrunk to only a shadow of her former self; and

WHEREAS, The events of the past few years have clearly proved that when national necessity sounded the clarion call to the sea our country, notwithstanding fifty dormant years, still had the necessary maritime genius and an abundance of the natural resources to found and maintain a great merchant marine; and

WHEREAS, History is emphatic in her teachings that no nation can ever hope to retain and successfully operate a great merchant marine without a virile national maritime spirit back of it, because a native seafaring population to man the ships has ever been as essential to national welfare as the ownership of vessels, for in the final analysis sea power is in the seamen; and

WHEREAS, The history of American seamanship is a glowing record of patriotism, courage and achievement unsurpassed by any people anywhere, no other calling demands a higher mental and physical standard in the men employed, none has given better service to civilization and to humanity, no occupation has a right to higher consideration or greater honor, for none has given more important service in peace and war; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That we respectfully urge upon our State Board of Education to so arrange for special courses in history, geography and commercial studies generally so as to instill in the minds of our young men the conviction that the destiny of California and the United States is inseparable from the sea; also to create the basis for a thorough nautical education, to awaken an interest in foreign trade and inspire a genuine appreciation of our unlimited opportunities upon the seven seas; and be it further

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be forthwith transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the State Board of Education and to the State Superintendent of Public Schools.

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 2.

Relative to allotments to soldiers upon their discharge from the Army of the United States.

WHEREAS, The signing of the armistice in the great war has brought to a victorious end the glorious work of the American forces in that mighty conflict for the preservation of the liberty of the free peoples of the earth; and

WHEREAS, The release into civil life of many thousands of American soldiers sailors and marines is called for as rapidly as possible; and

WHEREAS, The return to their former vocations of millions of Americans who took up arms in the valiant service of their country is coupled with need for their protection against distress; and

WHEREAS, No adequate provision has been made by the federal government for these returning soldiers, sailors and marines, men who have willingly made tremendous sacrifices for their country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby urges a speedy return to their homes of all American soldiers, sailors and marines across the sea and that the United States government pay to each soldier, sailor and marine when discharged, in addition to all pay due him, a sum equal to six months of his pay, to the end that he may be somewhat protected during his restoration to civil employment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California urge upon the Honorable Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, and Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, the need of such provision, lest there shall be want and distress among the American soldiers, sailors and marines who are and will be thus mustered out of the military and naval service of the United States during the rehabilitation period; and be it further

Resolved, That such protection to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the United States is due in fairness and justice to those who have so loyally and splendidly served the nation; and be it further

EXPLANATION OF VOTES.

Senators Dennett and Harris asked for, and were granted unanimous consent to have the following explanation of their votes on Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 printed in the Journal:

In order that there might be no misunderstanding as to the state of public sentiment in favor of proper provisions for returned soldiers, we voted in favor of Senate Joint Resolution No. 2. We are profoundly impressed with the importance of adequate measures for bridging over the period for discharged soldiers from discharge to permanent employment, and the resolution in question seems to us to impede—by providing an apparent rather than a real solution—a practical solution of that problem.

An imperative obligation rests upon the State and the Nation to solve this problem, and it is unwise to hamper real constructive measures by futile and inadequate resolutions.

However, there should be no mistake as to the sentiment of California, and not because we believe in the method, but because we do believe in the spirit, we have voted for it.

L. L. DENNETT.
M. B. HARRIS.

Relating to war loans made to allied governments by the United States.

WHEREAS, The people of the United States are being heavily taxed because of the burdens imposed growing out of such loans; and

WHEREAS, There has flown into the countries of the allied nations in Europe which have been devastated by war a constant stream of money contributed by the generous people of America, and an immense amount has likewise been spent abroad by the government of the United States for supplies of all kinds and by the men of the American expeditionary forces for miscellaneous merchandise, to the very great financial benefit of European peoples; and

Three Readings of Bills.

37. Every bill shall be read on three several days previous to its passage (unless in case of urgency, two-thirds of the membership of the Senate in which it is being considered shall by vote of the ayes and noes dispense with this provision). The President shall give notice, at each of the second and third readings, which reading it is, and no bills shall be read at either reading until the Senate has so determined by a vote (should any Senator object to such reading). (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Ordering Bills to Third Reading.

38. After being read the second time bills shall be ordered by the President to third reading (or, in the case of Senate bills, to engrossment and third reading). When any member makes objection to any bill thus being ordered to third reading, the final question for such bill shall be, "Shall the bill be ordered to third reading?" (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 42.)

Bills Considered During Last Seven Days.

39. No Senate bill shall be passed by the Senate within seven days of the time set for adjournment sine die of the two houses of the Legislature unless permission to vote on such a bill be granted by a three-fourths vote of the entire membership of the Senate, voting by roll-call. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 4.)

QUESTIONS AND MOTIONS.

40. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but the following privileged questions, which shall have precedence in the following order:

1. To adjourn.
2. For a call of the Senate.
3. To lay on the table.
4. To postpone to a day certain.
5. To commit.
6. To amend.
7. To postpone indefinitely.

Provided, however, that during a call of the Senate, it may consider and transact any matter or business that the Senators then present shall unanimously decide to consider, but no call of the Senate shall be had, during a call of the Senate, on any matter so taken up or considered while the Senate is under call. When a call of the Senate is ordered, pending the completion of a roll call, the pending roll call shall become unfinished business, the consideration of which shall be continued until further proceedings under the call of the Senate are dispensed with, when it will forthwith become the order of business before the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 44.)

Amendment or Division of Questions.

41. An amendment may be laid on the table without prejudice to the bill. When an amendment proposed to any pending measure shall be laid on the table, it shall not carry with it or prejudice such measure.

If the question in debate contains several propositions, any Senator may have the same divided; except a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided. The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition, nor shall it prevent a motion to simply strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion to strike out prevent a motion to strike out and insert; but pending a motion to strike out and insert, the part to be stricken out and the part to be inserted shall each be regarded, for the purpose of amendment, as a question. Motions to amend the part to be stricken out shall have precedence. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 45.)

Restriction as to Amendments.

42. A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, resolution or constitutional amendment under consideration. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 47.)

Vote Required for Amendments.

43. A constitutional amendment or bill requiring a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate for final adoption or passage may be amended by a majority of those voting. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 31, last sentence.)

PROCEDURE OF DEBATE.

Seconding and Announcement of Motion.

44. No motion shall be debated until the same be seconded and distinctly announced by the President; and it shall be reduced to writing if desired by the President or any Senator, and read by the Secretary, before the same shall be debated. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 49.)

Regulation as to Speaking.

45. 1. When a Senator desires to address the Senate he shall rise in his place, address the President, and when recognized he shall proceed to speak.

2. No Senator shall speak more than twice in any one debate on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill, without leave; and Senators who have once spoken shall not again be entitled to the floor (except for explanation) so long as any Senator who has not spoken desires to speak. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 79.)

3. No Senator shall be interrupted when speaking, and no question shall be asked him except those through the presiding officer.

4. The author of a bill, motion, or resolution shall have the privilege of closing the debate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 50.)

46. When two or more Senators arise at the same time to address the Senate, the presiding officer shall designate the Senator who is entitled to the floor. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 51.)

47. When a Senator shall be called to order he shall sit down until the President shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any Senator.

If a Senator be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable language shall immediately be taken down in writing by the Secretary of the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 6, 52, 53.)

The Previous Question.

48. The previous question shall be put in the following form: "Shall the question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the Senators present upon division; and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate except that the author of the bill or the amendments shall have the right to close, and the question under discussion shall thereupon be immediately put to a vote. On a motion for the previous question prior to a vote being taken by the Senate, a call of the Senate shall be in order. (Corresponding Assembly Rules Nos. 54 and 55.)

Executive Session.

49. When a motion is adopted to close the doors of the Senate, on the discussion of any business, which may, in the opinion of the Senate, require an executive session, the President shall require all persons, except the Senators, President of the Senate, Secretary, Minute Clerk, and Sergeant-at-Arms, to withdraw, and during the discussion of said business the doors shall remain closed. Every Senator and officer present shall keep secret all matters and proceedings concerning which secrecy shall be enjoined by order of the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Committee of the Whole.

50. The rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole so far as they may be applicable, except in the matter of limiting the number of times a Senator may speak, and except that the ayes and noes need not be taken. A motion that the committee rise shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 16.)

When the ayes and noes shall be taken upon any question in pursuance of this rule, no Senator shall be permitted, under any circumstances whatever, to vote after the announcement of the vote by the presiding officer. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 57 and 61.)

Excuse from Voting.

52. When a Senator declines to vote on a call of his name he shall be required to assign his reasons therefor, and having assigned them, the presiding officer shall submit the question to the Senate: "Shall the Senator, for the reasons assigned by him, be excused from voting?" which shall be decided without debate. And these proceedings shall be had after the roll call and before the result is announced, and any further proceedings in reference thereto shall be after such announcement. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 57.)

Reconsideration of Vote.

53. On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill, concurrent or joint resolution, or constitutional amendment has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on motion of any Senator; provided, notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a Senator voting with the prevailing side; and it shall not be in order to reconsider on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion for reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. It shall require twenty-one votes to carry any motion to reconsider the vote by which any bill, concurrent or joint resolution has been passed or defeated, fourteen votes to reconsider the vote by which any constitutional amendment has been passed, and twenty-seven votes to carry any motion to reconsider the vote by which any constitutional amendment has been defeated. Notice of reconsideration of the vote by which a Senate bill was passed, or a Senate joint resolution, Senate concurrent resolution or Senate constitutional amendment adopted, shall not be in order on or after the eighth day preceding the last day of the session. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session.

When Bill is Recalled for Reconsideration.

55. When a bill, resolution, amendment, order or message upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate and been communicated to the Assembly, a motion to reconsider shall be preceded by a motion to request the Assembly to return the same, which last-named motion shall be acted upon immediately and without debate, and if determined in the negative shall be a final disposition of the motion to reconsider. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 63.)

Debate on Motion to Reconsider.

56. A Senator, after a notice to reconsider is given, as provided in Rule 53, shall, at the reconsideration thereof, present the main question in his argument thereon, and the same shall be debated by the Senate provided that the subject matter is debatable, and the vote on reconsideration shall be on the merits of the main question. WHEREAS, The intent and purpose of the State Fish Exchange Act, passed by the Legislature of 1917, was intended to reduce the price of food fish, thereby increasing the consumption of fish; and

WHEREAS, It is a fact that the reverse is true and that the price of all fish, even the most plentiful varieties, has steadily increased under the administration and manipulation of the Market Director; and

WHEREAS, The cities of San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond, in the interests of the people of these cities, protested the extortionate and prohibitive prices charged at a time when the nation was at war and when it was necessary to conserve the meats for our soldiers and allies; and

WHEREAS, The Market Director was appealed to numerous times by this committee for relief and failed to give relief; and, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the interests of the people of the State, we appeal to the Legislature to repeal the State Fish Exchange Act, as from all the evidence we have secured the only persons to benefit by a further continuation of the present condition are those wholesale fishermen who have always controlled and reaped profits at the expense of the people.

This committee also wishes to state that it has conducted many investigations and has now in its possession evidence showing the utter inefficiency, to say the least, of the department known as the State Fish Exchange, and would welcome the opportunity to present the same to the State Legislature.

The law under which the Market Director holds office distinctly states that he shall not engage in other business while he is Market Director.

By Senator Crowley:

SAN FRANCISCO, January 8, 1919.

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and Assembly of the Forty-third Session of the California Legislature:

Health is the greatest resource of California and the best asset of its splendid men and women. The development of all our other rich resources depends upon the vitality of the people; in the race of life our progress in pursuing happiness is regulated by health.

The spirit of patriotic service that gave effective impetus to raising health standards and placed essential emphasis upon physical fitness during the war is indispensable in working out our reconstruction problems. To be fit for civic duty is as important as it was for military duty. A sound clean mind in a clean sound body—the physical, mental and moral improvement of our citizenship is all involved in the problem of health.

Health and welfare are synonymous terms. Salus populi suprema est lex. The health or welfare of the people is the supreme law.

That California may be the first state to recognize officially the importance of health, we, the undersigned, respectfully request the honorable members of the Senate and Assembly to establish a legal holiday to be known as

HEALTH DAY.

The official emphasis that you will thereby permanently place upon our greatest asset will concentrate the attention of the people on this supreme subject and give a new appreciation of the value of human life and the civic responsibility of each citizen to conserve his health for the good of himself, his family, his city, state and nation.

The celebration of Health Day could properly embrace all forms of healthful recreation, a field day for physical prowess, popular lectures on the fundamentals of urban, rural, industrial, school, mental, public and personal hygiene, and the patriotic, scientific, economic and moral aspects of our common health progress and problems.

California can most appropriately inaugurate and invite all to celebrate Health Day, for California is the nation's health resort.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 5.

Relative to the retirement on annuities of men and women in the employment of the United States who are over the age of sixty-eight years.

WHEREAS, Retirement on annuities has for many years been a vital issue with all organizations of federal civil service employees, for the reason that a large number of men and women over sixty-eight years of age have served the United States for a lifetime at such comparatively low wages that it has been impossible for them to accumulate a sum of money sufficient to enable them to voluntarily retire; and

WHEREAS, These men and women know that either demotion or dismissal awaits them if a retirement bill is not passed by the Congress, as the efficiency of employees rapidly declines after the age of sixty-eight years; and

WHEREAS, The United States Civil Service Commission, in its last annual report, strongly recommended a system of retirement, as follows:

"It is too costly to continue the aged and infirm in positions requiring alertness and vigor, and a retirement system is possible which would be alike in the interest of the government and the worker.

"While inefficiency is a just cause for removal, appointing officers naturally hesitate to dismiss old employees who have become incapacitated after rendering long and efficient service, and a virtual pension system thus exists.

"A retirement system would give stability to the service, create an inducement for capable men to continue in it, contribute to improve administrative methods, and make possible a standardization of salaries and other needed reforms"; and

WHEREAS, There is now before the Congress a bill known as the McKellar-Keating bill, which has for its object the retirement on annuities of all superannuated and disabled civil service employees of the United States, at a cost to be borne equally by the government and the employees; and

WHEREAS, The McKellar-Keating bill, which is known in the Senate as S. 4637 and in the House of Representatives as H. R. 12352, has received the unanimous indorsement of all organizations of federal civil employees as being the most comprehensive and satisfactory retirement bill that has been submitted to the Congress for its consideration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly, jointly. That the Legislature of the State of California declares itself to be in full sympathy and accord with the McKellar-Keating bill, known in the Senate as S. 4637 and in the House of Representatives as H. R. 12352; and be it further

Resolved. That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be and they are hereby requested to use all honorable means to secure the passage of said act; and be it further

Resolved. That the Secretary of the Senate be and he hereby is directed to forward copies of this resolution to the President of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of California's Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The motion shall give the title of the bill and shall be accompanied by the bill. The bill shall thereupon be referred to the Committee on Introduction of Bills. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 34.)

The committee shall examine bills referred to it with particular reference to the question as to whether there is already any bill in either house of the same character which might be amended to effect the result sought and generally as to the advisability of introducing the measure.

No bill shall be introduced without the consent of three-fourths of the members after report thereupon by the Committee on Introduction of Bills, nor shall more than two bills be introduced by any one member after the constitutional recess.

Joint and concurrent resolutions and constitutional amendments shall not be referred to the Committee on Introduction of Bills, and shall not require a vote to authorize their introduction, nor shall the number to be introduced by any one member be limited.

BILLS IN COMMITTEES.

Reference of Senate Bills.

25. At the time of introduction the President shall first indicate to what committee a bill or resolution ought to be referred, and it shall be so referred, unless upon a motion, without debate, the Senate by a majority vote refer it to some other committee. No debate shall be allowed on any motion to refer a bill or resolution to a committee. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 35.)

(Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 36.)

Reference of Assembly Bills.

28. When an Assembly bill has been received by the Senate, with a message announcing that it has passed the Assembly, such bill shall be read the first time and be referred by the President to a standing committee; provided, however, that when an Assembly bill is received, the text of which is stated by a member to be identical with that of a Senate bill which has already been considered and reported by a standing committee of the Senate, such Assembly bill shall be referred to the Committee on Engrossment and Enrollment for comparison, which committee shall report without delay, whether or not such bill is identical with the Senate bill. If reported identical, such Assembly bill shall be substituted for the Senate bill, shall take its place on the second-reading file and be considered as having received the same committee recommendation as the Senate bill; provided, that the fact that the bills are identical shall be entered in the Journal. Such Senate bill shall thereupon be placed upon the file of unfinished business. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 38.)

Reference of Appropriation Bills.

29. All bills appropriating money from any fund shall be referred to the Committee on Finance before being read the second time. Concurrent resolutions for adjournment sine die shall in all cases whether originating in the Senate or coming from the Assembly be referred to the Committee on Finance. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 21 and 22.)

Indication of Committee Amendments.

32. All bills amended or redrafted by committee shall have the new matter, if any, underscored, and the place of omission of parts of the original bill, if any, indicated by brackets. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 75.)

Reports of Committees.

33. All committees shall act upon bills referred to them as soon as practicable, and when acted upon each bill which, in the opinion of the committee, ought to be enacted into law, shall be reported back to the Senate forthwith, and the chairman of each committee is charged with the observance of this rule; provided, that the Senate may at any time, by a majority vote of all its members, recall a bill from any committee. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 39.)

ORDER OF CONSIDERING BILLS.

Order of Making File.

34. When bills are reported from committees they shall be placed upon the General File, to be kept by the Secretary as follows: All bills when reported to the Senate by the committees shall be placed at the foot of the second-reading file, in the order in which the reports are made, and after the second reading they shall be placed at the foot of the third-reading file, in the order of reading, and precedence shall be given in the consideration of bills in the following order: Second-reading file and third-reading file, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent or by a two-thirds vote of the Senate. The bills upon third reading shall be considered in the order in which they appear upon the file, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent or by vote of majority of the members present; such vote to be taken by roll call; provided, that if a bill is passed on file for any reason, other than absence of the author by leave of the Senate, note of the fact shall be made in the General File, and when passed on file a second time, the bill shall be ordered at the foot of the file, and notice of the fact of the bill having been passed on file prior to the order placing it at the foot of the file shall be omitted from the General File. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 40.)

The General File.

35. The General File shall be the special order for each day between such hours as the Senate may determine, unless sooner disposed of; but no bill shall lose its place upon the file by expiration of the time or by adjournment of the Senate while it is under consideration. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Special Order of Business.

36. Any subject may, by vote of a majority of those voting, be made a special order, and when the time fixed for its consideration arrives, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Three Readings of Bills.

37. Every bill shall be read on three several days previous to its passage (unless in case of urgency, two-thirds of the membership of the Senate in which it is being considered shall by vote of the ayes and noes dispense with this provision). The President shall give notice, at each of the second and third readings, which reading it is, and no bills shall be read at either reading until the Senate has so determined by a vote (should any Senator object to such reading). (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Ordering Bills to Third Reading.

38. After being read the second time bills shall be ordered by the President to third reading (or, in the case of Senate bills, to engrossment and third reading). When any member makes objection to any bill thus being ordered to third reading, the final question for such bill shall be, "Shall the bill be ordered to third reading?" (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 42.)

Bills Considered During Last Seven Days.

39. No Senate bill shall be passed by the Senate within seven days of the time set for adjournment sine die of the two houses of the Legislature unless permission to vote on such a bill be granted by a three-fourths vote of the entire membership of the Senate, voting by roll-call. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 4.)

QUESTIONS AND MOTIONS.

40. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but the following privileged questions, which shall have precedence in the following order:

1. To adjourn.
2. For a call of the Senate.
3. To lay on the table.
4. To postpone to a day certain.
5. To commit.
6. To amend.
7. To postpone indefinitely.

Provided, however, that during a call of the Senate, it may consider and transact any matter or business that the Senators then present shall unanimously decide to consider, but no call of the Senate shall be had, during a call of the Senate, on any matter so taken up or considered while the Senate is under call. When a call of the Senate is ordered, pending the completion of a roll call, the pending roll call shall become unfinished business, the consideration of which shall be continued until further proceedings under the call of the Senate are dispensed with, when it will forthwith become the order of business before the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 44.)

Amendment or Division of Questions.

41. An amendment may be laid on the table without prejudice to the bill. When an amendment proposed to any pending measure shall be laid on the table, it shall not carry with it or prejudice such measure.

If the question in debate contains several propositions, any Senator may have the same divided; except a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided. The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition, nor shall it prevent a motion to simply strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion to strike out prevent a motion to strike out and insert; but pending a motion to strike out and insert, the part to be stricken out and the part to be inserted shall each be regarded, for the purpose of amendment, as a question. Motions to amend the part to be stricken out shall have precedence. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 45.)

Restriction as to Amendments.

42. A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, resolution or constitutional amendment under consideration. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 47.)

Vote Required for Amendments.

43. A constitutional amendment or bill requiring a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate for final adoption or passage may be amended by a majority of those voting. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 31, last sentence.)

PROCEDURE OF DEBATE.

Seconding and Announcement of Motion.

44. No motion shall be debated until the same be seconded and distinctly announced by the President; and it shall be reduced to writing if desired by the President or any Senator, and read by the Secretary, before the same shall be debated. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 49.)

Regulation as to Speaking.

45. 1. When a Senator desires to address the Senate he shall rise in his place, address the President, and when recognized he shall proceed to speak.

2. No Senator shall speak more than twice in any one debate on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill, without leave; and Senators who have once spoken shall not again be entitled to the floor (except for explanation) so long as any Senator who has not spoken desires to speak. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 79.)

3. No Senator shall be interrupted when speaking, and no question shall be asked him except those through the presiding officer.

4. The author of a bill, motion, or resolution shall have the privilege of closing the debate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 50.)

Securing of the Floor.

46. When two or more Senators arise at the same time to address the Senate, the presiding officer shall designate the Senator who is entitled to the floor. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 51.)

Order in Debate.

47. When a Senator shall be called to order he shall sit down until the President shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any Senator. If a Senator be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable language shall immediately be taken down in writing by the Secretary of the Senate. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 6, 52, 53.)

The Previous Question.

48. The previous question shall be put in the following form: "Shall the question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the Senators present upon division; and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate except that the author of the bill or the amendments shall have the right to close, and the question under discussion shall thereupon be immediately put to a vote. On a motion for the previous question prior to a vote being taken by the Senate, a call of the Senate shall be in order. (Corresponding Assembly Rules Nos. 54 and 55.)

Executive Session.

49. When a motion is adopted to close the doors of the Senate, on the discussion of any business, which may, in the opinion of the Senate, require an executive session, the President shall require all persons, except the Senators, President of the Senate, Secretary, Minute Clerk, and Sergeant-at-Arms, to withdraw, and during the discussion of said business the doors shall remain closed. Every Senator and officer present shall keep secret all matters and proceedings concerning which secrecy shall be enjoined by order of the Senate. (No corresponding Assembly Rule.)

Committee of the Whole.

50. The rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole so far as they may be applicable, except in the matter of limiting the number of times a Senator may speak, and except that the ayes and noes need not be taken. A motion that the committee rise shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 16.)

VOTING BY SENATE.

Calling Ayes and Noes.

51. When the ayes and noes shall be called for by three members present, every member within the bar of the Senate at the time the question was put shall declare openly, and without debate, assent or dissent to the question. In taking the ayes and noes, and upon the call of the Senate, the names of the Senators shall be taken alphabetically. When the ayes and noes shall be taken upon any question in pursuance of this rule, no Senator shall be permitted, under any circumstances whatever, to vote after the announcement of the vote by the presiding officer. (Corresponding Assembly Rules are Nos. 57 and 61.)

Excuse from Voting.

52. When a Senator declines to vote on a call of his name he shall be required to assign his reasons therefor, and having assigned them, the presiding officer shall submit the question to the Senate: "Shall the Senator, for the reasons assigned by him, be excused from voting?" which shall be decided without debate. And these proceedings shall be had after the roll call and before the result is announced, and any further proceedings in reference thereto shall be after such announcement. (Corresponding Assembly Rule is No. 57.)

Reconsideration of Vote.

53. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its committees, and the same or a like bill has been referred by the Assembly to one of its committees, the chairmen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interests of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, shall arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of such bill.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Scope of Word "Bill."

4. Whenever the word "bill" is used in these rules it shall include constitutional amendments, joint and concurrent resolutions.

Joint and Concurrent Resolutions.

5. Joint resolutions are those which relate to matters connected with the federal government. All other resolutions relating to matters to be treated by both Houses of the Legislature are concurrent resolutions.

Resolutions Treated as Bills.

6. Joint resolutions, concurrent resolutions and constitutional amendments shall be treated in all respects as bills; except that they shall be read but one time in each House, and that they shall not be deemed bills within the meaning of section 2 of article IV of the constitution and shall not be referred to the Committee on Introduction of Bills, and shall not require a vote to authorize their introduction. As in the case of bills, they shall be engrossed in the House in which they originate before being voted upon.

PREPARATION AND INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Title of Bill.

7. The title of every bill introduced shall convey an accurate idea of the contents of the bill and shall be indicative of the scope of the act and the object to be accomplished. In amending a code section, the mere reference to the section by number shall not be deemed sufficient.

Division of Bill Into Sections.

8. Bills amending more than one section of existing laws shall contain a separate section for each section amended.

Bills which are not amendatory of existing laws shall be divided into short sections, where this can be done without destroying the sense of any particular section, to the end that future amendments may be made without the necessity of setting forth and repeating sections of unnecessary length.

Changes From Existing Laws to Be Marked by Author.

9. In case of a bill amending a code section, or general law, all omissions must be shown by the insertion of heavy parentheses or brackets without including the omitted matter; all additions must be shown by underlining the new matter. When printed, the new matter so underlined shall be enclosed in heavy brackets in the printed bill and also heavy brackets shall be retained to show omissions.

Committee on Revision and Printing to Examine Bills When Introduced.

10. Unless otherwise ordered by the House in which the bill was introduced, all bills before being printed shall be immediately sent to the Committee on Revision and Printing, which shall examine the bill, with the aid of the Legislative Counsel Bureau. The committee, by and with the written assent of the author filed with it, shall have authority to correct any clerical error such as in orthography, adding or correcting the enacting clause, mistakes in numbering sections and references thereto, errors in grammar, phraseology, or in the form of the bill; provided, that no bill which bears the stamp of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, showing that before introduction it has been examined as to form, shall be sent to the Committee on Revision and Printing.

NOTE.—The submission of bill copy to Legislative Counsel Bureau for approval of form before introduction will expedite its course.

Bills Introduced to Indicate Changes in Existing Laws.

11. The Committee on Revision and Printing shall see to it that Rules 7 and 9 of these Joint Rules are observed by the author, and that the bill shall not be sent to the printer until the provisions of these rules have been carried out.

Reports of Committee on Revision and Printing.

12. The Committee on Revision and Printing shall return to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly all bills in the order in which they were sent to it, but shall not retain any bill for longer than three legislative days, unless otherwise ordered.

13. Bills introduced in either House shall be endorsed with the date of introduction.

PRINTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF BILLS.

Manner of Printing Bills, Etc.

14. The State Printer shall observe the following directions in printing all bills, constitutional amendments, joint and concurrent resolutions:

(a) The body of such bills and resolutions shall be printed in solid unspaced form so that the same type shall be used both before and after enrollment.

(b) All titles of bills, resolutions, etc., shall be set in italics, statute form, and the length of the lines used in the bills shall not exceed that of the body of the bill.

(c) The lines of all printed bills shall be numbered by page and not by sections, and amendments shall be identified by reference to title, page and line only; provided, however, that concurrent resolutions approving city or county or city and county charters or amendments thereto may be set in smaller type and without line numbers.

(d) Enrolled bills may be enclosed in stock cover.

Printing of Amendments.

15. All bills amended by either House shall be immediately reprinted; in the case new matter is added by the amendments, such new matter shall be enclosed in heavy parentheses in the printed bill, and in the case of matter being omitted, the omission shall also be indicated by heavy parentheses. When a bill is amended in either House, the first or previous markings, except that showing change from code provision or former law, shall be omitted. When a bill amendatory of a code section is engrossed, all figures or symbols shall be removed.

Distribution of Bills During Constitutional Recess.

16. All requests for mailing or distribution by the members shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly not later than the end of the second week of the first part of the session, the same to be immediately referred to the Committee on Revision and Printing; this list shall be compiled, with the elimination of duplication, as a general public mailing list. The distribution of bills, constitutional amendments, joint and concurrent resolutions shall be systematized as follows: Members' desks and legislative officers' files 150 full sets; to authors 50 copies of their own bills; accredited newspaper representatives 25; to public and law libraries, newspapers, county officials, and other civic, commercial, fraternal or industrial organizations as the joint printing committees may compile from the recommendations of the members of both Houses, 1,200 copies; to State officers, State Library and Secretary of State, 200 copies; to legislative committees, bill room files and public requests—confined to single copies of bills designated, 1,000 copies. The State Printer shall cause to be printed in the standard form adopted by the Senate and the Assembly as many copies of all bills, constitutional amendments and joint or concurrent resolutions as may be necessary to conform to the provisions of this rule.

A similar number and distribution shall be made of the Semi-Final History and Final Calendar.

Distribution of Bills After Constitutional Recess.

17. Following the recess, new bills introduced shall be forwarded to the public libraries and law libraries only, and one copy each of amended bills as may be requested. Weekly Histories and Journals shall be distributed generally, following the recess, upon such schedule as the joint printing committees may designate.

OTHER LEGISLATIVE PRINTING.

18. The State Printer shall print 1,000 copies of the Journal of each day's proceedings of each House; at the end of the session he shall also print a sufficient number of copies, properly paged after being corrected and indexed by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly, to bind in book form as the Journal of the respective Houses of the Legislature as required by law.

What Shall Be Printed in the Journal.

19. The following shall always be printed in the Journal of each House:

(a) Messages from the Governor and messages from the other House, and the titles of all bills, and the titles and text of joint and concurrent resolutions and constitutional amendments when introduced in, or offered to, or acted upon by the House; provided, that in the case of a concurrent resolution approving the adoption of a charter or charter amendments of any kind, the text of such charter or charter amendments need not be printed in the Journal.

Immediately following the adjournment for the constitutional recess the history shall be compiled and printed to date of recess.

Authority for Printing Orders.

22. The Superintendent of State Printing shall not print for use of either House any matter other than provided by law or by these rules, except upon a written order signed by the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. 25. When a Senate bill has been received by the Assembly or an Assembly bill by the Senate, with a message announcing that the same has passed the Senate or

Assembly, such bill shall be read the first time by the Secretary or the Chief Clerk and referred to a standing committee by the presiding officer, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

After a Bill Has Been Passed by the Senate or Assembly.

27. On the second day after the close of the recess provided for in section 2, article IV, of the constitution, the Senate and Assembly shall each adopt and provide a special file upon which shall be placed: In the Senate, only Assembly bills that have passed the Assembly; and in the Assembly, only Senate bills that have passed the Senate. Such special file shall be taken up at two o'clock p.m. of each day, and be considered at least one hour and a half after being so taken up unless its consideration shall be completed in a lesser period of time. This rule shall not be suspended in either House except by a three-fourths vote of such House.

31. Messages shall be sent to the other House by an officer or attache to be designated by the Secretary, if it be a Senate message, or by the Chief Clerk, if it is an Assembly message.

Messages Must Be Announced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

32. When a message shall be sent from either House it shall be announced at the door by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and shall be respectfully communicated to the presiding officer by the person by whom it may be sent.

PASSAGE AND ENROLLING OF BILLS.

Passage of Bills Taking Effect Immediately.

33. Each House shall act in the usual course upon all bills that may be made to take effect immediately, under the provisions of section 1, article IV, of the constitution.

Passage of Urgency Provisions in Bills.

34. Upon the third reading of an act which is an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1, article IV, of the State constitution, the presiding officer shall direct that the section of said act setting forth the facts constituting the necessity for such urgency (which shall be known as the urgency section) be then read and put to vote. The question shall be thus stated: "Shall this section setting forth the urgency features of this bill be passed?" If upon such final vote two-thirds of all the members elected to the House in which the vote is being taken shall not vote in the affirmative, no further action shall be taken on the bill; but, in case an identical bill without such an emergency clause be again introduced into such House, such bill shall be placed on file without reference to any committee.

Passage of Bills Preceding Final Adjournment.

35. No Senate bill shall be passed by the Senate and no Assembly bill shall be passed by the Assembly within seven days of the time set for adjournment (sine die) of the two Houses of the Legislature, unless permission to vote on such bill shall be granted by a three-fourths vote of the House of its origin after being recommended by the presiding officer thereof.

Enrollment of Bill After Passage.

36. After a bill shall have passed both Houses, it shall be duly enrolled after being carefully compared, by the Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk and Committee of the House in which it originated, with the engrossed bill as passed in the two Houses. It shall then receive the signatures provided for in Joint Rule 37, and be presented to the Governor of the State.

Enrolling Committee to Present Bills to Governor.

37. After a bill shall have been thus passed in each House, it shall be presented by the Engrossing and Enrolling Committee of the House in which it originated to the Governor of the State for his approval (it being first endorsed by the presiding officers of the two Houses, and by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly). The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journal of the House in which the bill originated.

AMENDMENTS AND CONFERENCES.

Amendments to Amended Bills Must Be Attached.

38. Whenever a bill or resolution which shall have been passed in one House shall be amended in the other, it shall immediately be reprinted as amended by the House making such amendment or amendments. Such amendment or amendments shall be attached to the bill or resolution so amended, and indorsed "adopted," and such amendment or amendments, if concurred in by the House in which such bill or resolution originated, shall be indorsed "concurred in," and such indorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk or Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be; provided, however, that an amendment to the title of a bill adopted after the passage of such bill shall not necessitate reprinting, but such amendment must be concurred in by the House in which such bill originated.

To Concur or Refuse to Concur in Amendments.

39. In case the Senate amend and pass an Assembly bill, or the Assembly amend and pass a Senate bill, the Senate (if it be a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it be an Assembly bill) must either "concur" or "refuse to concur" in the amendments. If the Senate concur (if it be a Senate bill), or the Assembly concur (if it be an Assembly bill), the Secretary or Chief Clerk shall notify the House making the amendments and the bill shall be ordered to enrollment.

40. If the Senate refuse to concur (if it be a Senate bill), or the Assembly refuse to concur (if it be an Assembly bill), the Secretary or the Chief Clerk shall notify the House making the amendments of such refusal, and ask that they recede from their amendments. If they refuse to recede, the presiding officer shall appoint a committee of three (3) on conference and the Secretary or the Chief Clerk shall immediately notify the other House of the action taken and request the appointment of a like committee. Two of the members comprising such committee from each House shall be selected from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from each House of such committee shall be selected from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote. The first Senator named on the Conference Committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the Senate, and the first Assemblyman named on such committee shall act as chairman of the committee from the House, and the chairmen thus selected shall arrange the time and place of all meetings and prepare or direct the preparation of reports. The Committee on Conference shall report to both the Senate and Assembly.

Committee on Conference.

41. In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other, if either House shall request a conference and appoint a committee to confer, the other House shall appoint a like committee; and such committee shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by the respective chairmen of the committees.

Committee on Free Conference.

42. If the conference fail to agree or either House refuse to adopt the report of the committee, a Committee on Free Conference shall then be appointed which shall consist of three members from each House, to be constituted and appointed in the same manner as a Committee on Conference. hereby directed to include in its report any amendments which it may adopt as a committee, and such amendments shall be attached to the bill.

The report of the Committee on Free Conference shall not be subject to amendment, and if either House refuse to adopt such report the conferees may be discharged and other conferees appointed.

It shall require the affirmative vote of not less than four of the members constituting the committee to agree upon a report. No member who has served on a Committee on Conference shall be appointed a member of a Committee on Free Conference on the same bill.

When Conference Committee Report Is in Order.

43. The presentation of the report of a committee on Conference or Free Conference shall always be in order, except when the Journal is being read or a question of order or a motion to adjourn is pending, or during roll call, and, when received, the question of proceeding to the consideration of the report, if raised, shall be immediately passed upon, and shall be determined without debate.

By the President:

To the Honorable Senate of California:

WHEREAS, Under our present laws, candidates can and do secure nominations of two or more parties, their names appearing on all ballots, even of supposedly opposing political parties; and

WHEREAS, The vote on many vital measures at each legislative session has proved that legislators vote as individuals and not as partisans; and

WHEREAS, The present Direct Primary Law doubles the expense of elections; and

WHEREAS, The conditions of said law practically disfranchise hundreds of thousands of intelligent citizens who, having no party affiliation, desire to vote for those individuals on different party tickets who are pledged to support the measures they desire to become laws; and

WHEREAS, Said conditions cause confusion at the polls and have resulted in the throwing out of the entire vote in some precincts, which unjustly made null and void many valid votes of true citizens; therefore

In behalf of all so-called nonpartisans, this petition is presented to your honorable body, asking that the Direct Primary Law be eliminated from our statute books, and that some substitute be formulated whereby every registered citizen can cast his, or her ballot for the man, or woman, of his, or her, choice, irrespective of party affiliation; or that at least a section may be added to our present law, requiring the printing of a blank ballot indicating the offices to be filled, with blank spaces where the

CASE OF URGENCY.

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator Inman:

Resolved, That Assembly Bill No. 216 presents a case of urgency, as that term is used in section 15 of article IV of the constitution, and the provision of that section requiring that the bill shall be read on three several days in each house is hereby dispensed with, and it is ordered that said bill be read the second and third times, and placed upon its passage.

Resolution read.

During the consideration of the above resolution, the following communication was read, and on motion of Senator Inman, ordered printed in the Journal:

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL, January 24, 1919.

Hon. Marshall DeMotte,

Chairman State Board of Control,
Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: In answer to your question asking if there exists any probability that the State may sustain a financial loss through the contemplated purchase of warrants of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Drainage District, to be issued and sold under the provisions of Assembly Bill No. 216, now pending passage in the Senate, I advise you as follows:

The act creating said district (Stats. 1913, page 252) repeats the essential features embodied in a prior act passed at the session of 1905 (Stats. 1905, page 443), the validity of which was sustained upon all points in an exhaustive opinion rendered in the case of People ex rel Chapman vs. Sacramento Drainage District, 155 Cal. 373.

The entire scheme of the present district, including the construction of the Sutter by-pass and the necessary levees bordering the same, has received elaborate consideration at the hands of our Supreme Court in the recent cases of Reclamation District No. 1500 vs. The Superior Court, 171 Cal. 672, and Gray vs. Reclamation District No. 1500, 174 Cal. 622, and the validity thereof fully sustained. The right of the Legislature to cause the performance of the necessary works of reclamation and drainage and to provide for assessing the cost thereof upon the lands benefited thereby has been placed beyond question by the repeated decisions of our own Supreme Court and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Hagar vs. Yolo Co., 47 Cal. 222; Hagar vs. Reclamation District, 111 U. S. 701; Fallbrook Irrigation District vs. Bradley, 164 U. S. 112; People vs. Sacramento Drainage District, 155 Cal. 373.

Upon the foregoing authorities I, therefore, advise you that the construction of the east levee of the Sutter by-pass is duly authorized by law and that the cost thereof may be legally assessed against the owners of the property benefited thereby.

I deem it quite probable, however, that litigation will be inaugurated by some of the affected landowners, in an effort to defeat the assessment mentioned in the bill under consideration, and that the collection of the sums becoming due thereunder will be delayed thereby. But, as the warrants bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum I do not apprehend that the State will lose through the delay, if proper precautions are taken to renew the warrants as provided by law.

Nor do I apprehend that such litigation will result in any consequence to the district more serious than a possible necessity to reassess the cost of the work upon the benefited lands, to the exclusion of the lands of contesting owners who succeed in defeating the assessment upon the ground that they receive no benefit from the work. I am of the opinion that, ultimately, the landowners will be compelled to pay such assessment as may be properly levied against their lands to defray the costs of such work, and that such moneys so paid will be applicable to the redemption of the warrants issued by the district pursuant to law.

Respectfully submitted,

U. S. WEBB, Attorney General.
By R. T. McKISICK, Deputy.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Senator Duncan asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following explanation of his vote on Assembly Bill No. 216 printed in the Journal:

On the first roll call, I voted "no" on Assembly Bill No. 216. Before the announcement of the vote, I changed my vote to "aye." I thereupon gave notice that I would move to reconsider the vote whereby the bill was adopted, making said motion on the next legislative day.

Upon consultation with my friends in Sutter County, I requested their sanction to withdraw this notice which they accorded me, agreeing that I was justified in withdrawing same, which I have done, and the record of which notice has been expunged from the record.

I make this explanation to the end that there may be a record explanation of my reason for voting "aye" on this bill.

CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTIONS—[OUT OF ORDER].

Senator Scott asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to take up for consideration at this time Assembly Joint Resolutions Nos. 10 and 14.

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 10.

Relative to the constructing and fitting out of all ships and vessels used by Emergency Fleet Corporation or coming under their control.

WHEREAS, During our recent war there have been constructed within the United States many shipyards which, taken altogether, have a capacity sufficient to construct all the ships required by the federal government in the operation of the American merchant marine; and

WHEREAS, We are now confronted with the problem of caring for our returned soldiers, there appearing to be more men than jobs; and

WHEREAS, In face of this fact the Emergency Fleet Corporation is reported to have let contracts to the shipyards located in foreign countries in an amount exceeding thirty million dollars; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States that they take such steps as may be necessary to prevent final consummation of this deal, and to cancel any contracts that have been entered into if the same can be done consistent with the honor and integrity of the United States. And that they enact such laws as will prevent a repetition of such, and that they further provide for all American ships to be constructed in shipyards in the United States.

Resolved, That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of California be requested to use all honorable means to secure the action desired in this matter for the purpose aforesaid; and be it further

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 14.

Relative to the plan recommended by the Honorable Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, for the placing of returning United States soldiers upon farms.

WHEREAS, It has been recommended by the Honorable Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, that Congress immediately appropriate the sum of one hundred million dollars for placing the returning soldiers of the United States upon farms, thereby inaugurating a plan whereby at least one hundred thousand men will be immediately employed in the creation of at least twenty-five thousand farms within the territory of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The plan as outlined by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior proposes the reclamation of approximately two hundred fifteen million acres of arid and swamp land within the United States at present unfit for cultivation because of the lack of water in the one case and drainage in the other; and

WHEREAS, The plan suggested is not a "charity scheme," and under appropriate management will be self-funding, and will offer alluring opportunities to settlers as compared with the old land settlement systems, inasmuch as forty years time is to be given the settlers within which to reimburse the United States for the money and credit loaned to them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly, jointly, That the plan as outlined by Secretary of the Interior Lane meets with its heartiest and utmost approval, and that this Legislature urges upon the Congress of the United States the early enactment into law of the plan proposed and the appropriation of the money needed to carry out the provisions thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be, and he is hereby directed to forward copies of these resolutions to the Honorable Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, to the President of the Senate of the United States, Speaker of the

REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF MARIN COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

MONDAY, February 3, 1919, 9:30 o'clock a.m.

Present: C. J. Gardner (Chairman), F. W. Sweetser, M. Burke, Wm. Barr, D. Steele.

Supervisor Barr introduced the following as a resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors, in session assembled, respectfully request and urge the Hon. Will R. Sharkey and the Hon. J. E. Manning, representing Marin County in the State Legislature, to use all lawful means at their command to defeat any bill that may have been introduced in the Legislature or that may hereafter be introduced, or any bill that may be amended to reduce the amounts paid to the counties from automobile license fees, as we believe that it is not for the best interest of the counties that any reduction should be made in the amounts now paid; and we believe that the law as now on the statutes should not be changed in any particular whatever, so that the proceeds from the automobile license fees can be used as at present for the building and maintenance of roads and bridges in the county."

On motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Sweetser, the foregoing resolution was adopted and carried by the following vote: Ayes—Supervisors Sweetser, Burke, Barr, Steele, Gardner. Nocs—None.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By the President:

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 603 and Assembly Bill No. 791, now pending before the California Legislature, have for their purpose to separate the State Compensation Insurance Fund from the jurisdiction of the State Industrial Accident Commission; and

WHEREAS, Since its institution in 1913, and during its administration by the Commission, the State Fund has won the confidence of both employers and employees and is now doing one-third of the compensation insurance business of the State, having paid to injured employees during the past five years more than $2,500,000 and holding a loss reserve of more than $1,250,000 to meet compensation payments as they fall due for deaths, and permanent or temporary injuries that have already occurred; and

WHEREAS, The efficiency and liberality of the claim department of the State Fund as well as of the Commission are shown by the remarkable record that out of 20,117 claims filed during the calendar year of 1918 only 122 were referred to the Commission for adjudication, and of these claims 76 were decided in favor of the Fund and 46 in favor of the claimants, a record that from the standpoint of the welfare of the injured employees and in the light of experience with claims for damages of every nature, surpasses beyond comparison the records of private insurance companies, taken either individually or collectively; and

WHEREAS, The experience of the workers of California and other states in this field of insurance has been well expressed by the American Federation of Labor in its reconstruction program recently announced, that "to assure that the insurance fund derived from commerce and industry will be paid in full to injured workers, state insurance must supplant, and prohibit the existence of, employers' liability insurance operated for private profit"; and

WHEREAS, There can be no reasonable complaint made by either employers or employees in commerce or industry that their proper interests are not protected and well administered under the present organization of the State Compensation Insurance Fund under the jurisdiction of the State Industrial Accident Commission; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the San Francisco Labor Council, representing more than 65,000 workers who would be injuriously affected in many respects by the passage of aforesaid measures, that we most earnestly protest to the members of the forty-third session of the California Legislature against the enactment of such legislation, and that we respectfully solicit their individual votes against said bills if pressed for passage; and further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to Governor W. D. Stephens, Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, each Senator and Assemblyman, to all central labor councils of the State, and to the press, with the request that they each take such cognizance and action in the matter as will defeat the purposes of those sponsoring said bills.

JNO. A. O'CONNELL, Secretary.

COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BERKELEY.
COUNTY OF ALAMEDA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Resolution No. 8140—N. S. Endorsing and approving certain bills now pending before the Legislature of the State of California, which provide for a grant to the city of Berkeley of the waterfront lands adjacent to said city, for a period of fifty years.

Be it resolved by the council of the city of Berkeley as follows:

WHEREAS, It is the opinion of this council that a comprehensive plan of waterfront development for the purpose of commerce and navigation on the east shore of San Francisco Bay, is of vital interest and importance to the city of Berkeley; and

WHEREAS, This council believes that such development can not be fully accomplished unless the grant of State tidelands to the municipalities of Oakland, Emeryville, Berkeley and Albany, be uniform; and

WHEREAS, There are now pending before the Legislature of the State of California, and referred to the Committee on Commerce and Navigation, Senate Bills Nos. 565, 566, 567 and 568, and Assembly Bills Nos. 729, 730, 731 and 732, providing for such uniform grants; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That said bills are hereby endorsed and approved.

Resolved, further, That it is the opinion of this council that said bills should be enacted at this session of the Legislature, and the members of the Senate and Assembly Committees on Commerce and Navigation are respectfully urged to report favorably on the measures and to secure their adoption in the Legislature.

Dated: February 25, 1919.

Adopted by the council of the city of Berkeley by the following vote: Ayes—Councilmen Baxter, Boynton, Harms, Heywood and President Irving. Noes—None. Absent—None.

S. C. IRVING,

Mayor and President of the Council.

Attest: A. G. BRIGGS,

City Clerk and Clerk of the Council.

Also:

Resolution adopted by the Berkeley Defense Corps, February 24, 1919:

WHEREAS, It is apparent that there is in California a combine of the milk producers and the distributors, each in separate but allied organizations, having for their purpose the fixing of prices to be paid, first to the producer, and second by the consumer; and

WHEREAS, It seems susceptible of proof that these organizations, especially those having to do with the production of milk, are largely dominated and controlled by certain corporate interests, and that it is their design to fix such prices to the distributors and thus indirectly to the consumers, of milk and milk products as will be in restraint of trade and thereby violate the spirit and purpose of the so-called Cartwright Law of California, relating to trusts in this respect and to use illegal and dishonest means of driving the independent producers and distributors out of business; and

WHEREAS, It is apparent that the State Market Commission Act of California is being used by Harris Weinstock, State Market Director, not primarily for greater business efficiency and the elimination of waste to the producer, but for the controlling of prices in many cases almost prohibitive, and the building up of organizations that are violating the design and purpose of this act, and especially in the matter of milk; and

WHEREAS, Through some fault arising either from the fixing of prices, or the excessive overhead expense of distribution, or from a downright spirit of profiteering, the price of milk in most parts of the State is too high, thereby putting a burden upon the people of moderate circumstances, but rendering the purchase in adequate quantities by the poor impossible; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Berkeley Defense Corps, composed of over 750 of the best citizenry of this city, that we demand that an immediate, thorough, fearless and painstaking investigation of the milk situation in California be made by our present Legislature, to the end that this most necessary and important food be secured to the whole people at prices that will at once yield to the producer a fair return and secure to the consumer a food at a price from which there has been eliminated all excessive charges; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be at once forwarded to our representatives at Sacramento, with instructions to at once introduce and urge the passage of the same, to our Governor, to the city council of Berkeley, asking its co-operation.

Also:

WHEREAS, The high cost of living is today the most serious problem confronting the people of this State, and especially its wage earners; and

WHEREAS, The ever increasing prices are mainly due not to a lack of production, but to a system of trust controlled markets, which prevent food supplies from coming to market, and to inadequate methods of distribution; and

WHEREAS, The logical remedy is the establishment of State commission markets, which will maintain open channels between producer and consumer, thus permitting food surplus to come to market instead of being destroyed by food speculators and profiteers; and

WHEREAS, Such markets must necessarily bring great benefits to both producer and consumer; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Berkeley Center of the California Civic League hereby heartily endorses the plan of establishing State commission markets as outlined in the Brown-Ekswold State Market Act and provided for in Senate Bill No. 629 and Assembly Bill No. 917; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to our representatives in the Legislature.

BERKELEY CIVIC LEAGUE.

By Senator Irwin:

To the Senate and Assembly of the Forty-third Session of the California Legislature.

We, the undersigned residents of the State of California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of church and State, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

C. A. STARK.

And 346 others.

By Senator Burnett:

To the Honorable Members of the Legislature of the State of California.

We, the undersigned students, alumni and friends of the University of California Extension, respectfully urge your honorable body to adopt the bill introduced by Senator Lester G. Burnett of San Francisco, making an appropriation, under certain conditions, for a University of California Extension building in San Francisco and for a similar building in Los Angeles.

The University of California Extension carries the University directly to the people of the State. Its usefulness to the people who are unable to attend the University proper (of whom there are in the districts adjacent to San Francisco and Los Angeles approximately 10,000) is being seriously and vitally impaired by the lack of proper classroom and administrative accommodations.

We ask this in the name of the thousands who desire university advantages and who are unable to attend the University proper.

Respectfully,

S. R. SMITH,

And 1,000 others.

By Senator Boggs:

To the Senate and Assembly of the Forty-third Session of the California Legislature:

We, the undersigned residents of San Joaquin County, State of California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of Church and State, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

A. L. PHELPS.

And 1394 others.

By Senator Sharkey:

RESOLUTION CONCERNING FARMERS' ORGANIZATIONS.

WHEREAS, A resolution has been presented to the State Legislature by the opponents, claiming that the said organizations are unjust to the great mass of consumers; and

WHEREAS, This statement is contemplated to prejudice the public mind against such farmers' associations and to lead the public to believe that the farmers practice profiteering; and

WHEREAS, Such misleading statements and insidious propaganda are calculated to work injury to the farming industry of the producers of food; and

WHEREAS, The principal object of these marketing associations is to eliminate speculation in food products and do away with unnecessary middlemen and their profits; and

WHEREAS, The results thus far attained by these marketing associations have proved beyond controversy that proportionately lower prices have prevailed to the consumer; and

WHEREAS, The ultimate object of these organizations is to reduce the price to the consumer; and

WHEREAS, It has been emphasized by Food Commissioner Herbert Hoover, that any reduction in price to the American farmer (who is operating in some cases on a margin as low as 10 per cent) would ultimately stifle production and cause thousands of people to go hungry; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Contra Costa County Farm Bureau, go on record, on behalf of the producers and consumers, of which the farmers themselves form no small proportion, as emphatically endorsing the work of the marketing organizations of California and opposing and resisting any and all attacks by newspaper propaganda and otherwise, emanating from food speculators or the great packing corporations, seeking to destroy our interests and regain control of our products.

By Senator Brown:

The following resolution was passed by the Berkeley Defense Corps, in session February 24, 1919:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE—(OUT OF ORDER).

By consent of the Senate, the following report of special committee was received and read out of the regular order:

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California at its Forty-third Session.

In conformity with the provision of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 12, adopted at the session January 24, 1919, there is herewith transmitted for your consideration the report of the committee appointed under the terms of such resolution, together with its findings and recommendations as to the matters included in the investigation.

ESTO B. BROUGHTON.
LEON E. GRAY.
E. S. RIGDON.
L. FLAHERTY.
FRANK H. BENSON.
S. C. EVANS.
JOSEPH M. ARGABRITE.
ALBERT A. ROSENSHINE.

The Joint Legislative Committee appointed to investigate the condition of unemployment and report to the Legislature, met in San Francisco on January 31, 1919, for the purpose of organization.

A subsequent meeting was held in that city on February 2, at which a large number of persons whose official positions, experience, and training was such as to make them most likely to be conversant with labor conditions in California were present and participated in the considerations of the committee.

Among those addressing the committee were P. J. Hayselden, employment manager of the San Francisco Ship Building Company; C. C. Moore, who, as Chairman of the State Council of Defense, had been making some inquiry into reconstruction problems; Paul Scharrenberg, Secretary of the Immigration and Housing Commission; Adjutant General Borree; Prof. C. C. Plehn, Professor of Finance of the University of California; Solomon Bloom, Associate Professor of Economics of the University of California; Ira B. Cross, Associate Professor of Economics of the University of California; C. B. Sexton, Superintendent of Bureaus of the State Employment Bureau; W. T. Boyce, California Director of the United States Employment Service; and H. S. Maddox, Secretary of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce.

At the conclusion of this hearing, the committee adjourned with the understanding that the various members would prosecute individual inquiry in their respective districts and particularly that those members of the committee coming from agricultural communities would ascertain the existence of unemployment, and, so far as possible, the prospective labor condition in such communities.

From the testimony of those who have appeared before the committee, and, as a result of the individual investigations of the members, it appears that there is no unusually acute condition of unemployment existing in the State of California at the present time. In the large centers of population there are now, as there were during the winter months in all years when there was no unusual industrial activity, a considerable number of unemployed men, but the extent to which this condition is aggravated by the returned soldiers appears to be negligible.

Some considered that the situation might become acute if a stimulation in industry were not brought about. Mr. Sexton estimated that there were 10,000 unemployed in San Francisco, 4,000 in Fresno, 200 in Chico, and 200 in Marysville. This is not an unusually large number to be seasonally unemployed. Business has slackened up and practically every line has had a marked drop off. Business has been slackened by the lack of orders and the cancellation of war contracts. For instance, the Hercules Powder plant has had to reduce the plant from 4,000 to 750 men. Most cement plants are closed. Owing to the season of the year there are also men from the lumber camps, fisheries and canneries, and agricultural work out of employment.

The employers generally have shown a generous spirit in re-employing men discharged from the service. The unions are very fair to the returned soldiers and sailors.

The Federal Employment Bureau is providing facilities for the employment of men discharged from the service and has opened registration bureaus at demobilization centers. The State Employment Bureau also gives preference to soldiers and sailors applying to it in securing work. The State Soldier Unemployment Committee, of which Adjutant General J. J. Borree is chairman, has a comprehensive plan for the organization of local committees for the replacement of soldiers.

Employment can be found for discharged soldiers and sailors but not always the kind of work desired by them. To some extent civilians are displaced by discharged men. This may become more serious as more men are discharged. There is a tendency for the ex-service men to congregate in large numbers in the cities where it is more difficult to place them. This is due to mustering out in a few centers.

Senator Evans made an investigation of the labor situation in and around Los Angeles and reported no soldier unemployment problem there at the present time, but that quite a number were coming there from other places and might complicate the future.

What the succeeding months may bring forth in this regard as the soldiers continue to arrive is, of course, problematical, and your committee finds a distinct difference of opinion among those in a position best qualified to make predictions. A feeling of optimism, however, predominates, and among those coming in most direct contact with the varying conditions of unemployment there was evinced a decidedly hopeful feeling that spring activities in construction and other lines would in all probability absorb whatever labor the returning soldiers might have to offer.

This belief, however, is largely founded upon confidence that capital will not be unduly timid and that a reasonable degree of courage will be evinced in the forwarding of new projects.

Due to war conditions construction work of all kinds has been held up. On account of the difficulties of readjustment private construction is likely to be delayed. All persons agreed that the State should push all necessary public work; that the State should make available funds for every possible construction work, even at additional cost; that what is needed is immediate work.

In this connection, it is the judgment of your committee that the State should set a salutary example in the forwarding of its own projects. It is the belief of your committee, as a result of these investigations, that such public construction and building enterprises as have been delayed and interrupted by war conditions should now be urged with all practical vigor. To this end the various State officials and employees having control of State projects involving the employment of labor should bear in mind the desirability of commencing work upon such projects at the earliest possible moment.

The Legislative Reference Department of the State Library at the request of the committee collected a large amount of data on unemployment relief and the soldier unemployment. A copy of this report is annexed to the report. The data collected from other states and the federal government emphasizes public work as a buffer employment in periods of economic depression.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. The committee found the seasonal labor problem a far-reaching one with many ramifications. In the limited time the committee could not adequately investigate the situation. But it was ascertained from the information obtained that this is an annually recurring problem in this State and one of general public importance, especially in the rural districts. Some seasons it is more intense than others.

At the peak of the harvest there is apparently a shortage of laborers. In the winter months there is a general cessation of farm work and certain other industries such as lumbering, fisheries, canneries and construction, throwing many people out of employment. There seems to be no compensating industry in the winter to take up this surplus. The committee could not obtain sufficient evidence of the numbers of workers and their particular employment, or make a thorough canvass of the situation adequate for a basis of any remedial legislation. It is convinced that the seasonal unemployment situation yearly confronts California and that it goes deeply into the social and economic conditions of our State.

The committee, therefore, respectfully suggests that the Governor call upon the University of California, the State Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Immigration and Housing Commission and other State departments to make a thorough investigation of the seasonal labor conditions, in order that an adequate plan may be devised for stabilizing the labor demand throughout the year.

2. Your committee believes that the great body of young men which has been removed from the industrial life of our nation should be given a reasonable period in which to accomplish its readjustment without being brought into direct competition with the labor of countries whose standards of living are so far below those to which our young men have a right to aspire, and to this end your committee recommends that the Legislature memorialize the Congress of the United States to restrict immigration for a period of years, in order that sufficient time may elapse for the Americanization of certain elements of our population.

3. It is reasonable to suppose that on account of the small pay which the soldier receives and the considerable amount thereof devoted to allotments, insurance, the purchasing of Liberty bonds, etc., many of our returning soldiers find themselves embarrassingly short of funds upon their discharge, and therefore your committee recommends that the Legislature memorialize Congress to grant to each soldier one month's furlough pay with soldier's allowance for the first six months of service thereafter, the same to be paid to the soldier immediately upon muster out from federal service as part of his final statement. These involve payments which have actually been due the soldier and which, in many cases, would be a very timely assistance, tiding him over the period until he can satisfactorily work out his own replacement.

4. Many soldiers are mustered out at some distance from their home locality. This tends to a congestion at points where demobilization takes place, and causes hardships on the part of the men individually. Your committee therefore recommends that the Legislature urge the War Department to return the soldier to the locality from which he was inducted into service for demobilization, thereby giving him the opportunity to make an industrial place for himself under conditions with which he is familiar.

5. The State has a great wealth of natural resources undeveloped. The development of these would lead to great industrial activity and open an era of prosperity and development, but we are now facing a period of industrial stagnation in which private capital is timid. The shifting of many industries from a war to a peace basis complicates the present conditions. The development and construction work on the part of the State would set a salutary example to private enterprise and furnish an opportunity for the employment of many men. Also pave the way for the development of the State's natural resources. Soldiers and sailors should be given a preference in employment on all State construction and development work. Therefore, your committee urges the pursuance of as vigorous a policy of State construction work at this time as the State finances will permit.

6. The State is in great need of buildings for the adequate housing of State offices. Bond issues have been authorized, but construction withheld during the war. The construction of these State buildings would employ a great many men of various trades and stimulate many subsidiary lines of employment. Therefore, your committee urges the immediate construction of all public buildings for which bond issues have been authorized.

7. It is indisputable that the development of the State's resources requires new highways. In the construction of highways a great many persons can be employed, and the employment be distributed throughout the State. Therefore, the committee urges the immediate commencing of highway construction, and recommends that the three million dollars provided for by the State bonds be used for initiating this work with a minimum contribution from the counties, but that it be equitably apportioned and divided between the roads named in the State bond issue whereby said bonds were voted.

8. Your committee wishes to heartily endorse the State land colonization plan and that special regard should be given to the development of the project to provide for soldier and sailor settlements.

9. Your committee endorses the recommendations made by the State Committee on Soldiers' Employment and Readjustment which are contained in a letter from Adjutant General J. J. Borree, Chairman, which are attached hereto and make a part of this report.

10. Realizing that it is impossible to determine long in advance when a period of unemployment is likely to occur and that there should be some board to meet this problem when it does arise, the committee makes the following recommendation:

Your committee, therefore, suggests the creation of an Emergency Public Works Board composed of important State officials, such as: The Governor, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics, a Highway Commissioner, the Controller, Secretary of Immigration and Housing Commission, and the State Engineer. The purpose of this board would be to plan that a certain portion of public work not immediately necessary be saved and done during periods of unemployment.

It should be its duty to secure from the various departments of the State tentative plans for extensions of necessary public works during periods of unemployment. These plans should be complete enough so that work can be begun on such projects on the shortest notice.

It should indicate to the State departments the advantage of saving up portions of their public works to be done during periods of unemployment.

To urge the municipalities and counties to adopt a similar policy, and to co-ordinate all public works within the State.

It should recommend to the Legislature methods by which certain appropriations for public works will become available only during a period of unemployment.

It should recommend methods by which the bond issues for necessary public works, previously authorized for use during periods of unemployment, may become promptly available at such times.

STATE COMMITTEE ON READJUSTMENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 27, 1919.

To Miss Estro Broughton, Chairman Committee to Investigate Replacement Soldiers and Sailors, State Capitol, Sacramento, California.

(Subject: Resolution—Public Improvements.)

1. We are sending you the following resolution adopted by the State Committee on Readjustment under date of February 24, rather than sending it to the Speakers of the Assembly and the Senate as was originally intended:

WHEREAS, Many and extensive building plans and projects made and provided by the United States Government and also by the government of the State of California are now being delayed and are not put into immediate operation as was originally contemplated by the enactments provided therefor, because their appropriations are insufficient to cover present increased costs of construction; and

WHEREAS, The State Committee on Readjustment of California believes that the United States Government and the government of the State of California, in order to stimulate private business and to re-establish the confidence of the people, should begin at once all construction possible and put at once into operation all measures that have been adopted for this purpose;

Wherefore, The State Committee on Readjustment hereby urgently recommends that the Legislature of the State of California give serious consideration to the advisability of immediately appropriating sufficient funds to cover such deficits and take such steps therein as may be deemed by the Legislature proper in the premises in order that the said plans and projects for work may be begun at once; and

The State Committee on Readjustment further recommends that the Legislature of the State of California at once memorialize the Congress of the United States and request that the Congress give immediate impetus to all government construction by the appropriation of adequate sums of money to complete all work outlined, and that the Congress also provide for and start at once all new construction possible.

The aforesaid resolution was regularly adopted by the State Committee on Readjustment of California at its meeting held on February 24, 1919, at San Francisco, California, with the direction that copies of the aforesaid resolution at once be sent to the Governor of the State of California, and also that copies of this resolution be sent to the Council of National Defense at Washington, D. C., and to the United States Senators and Representatives of the State of California.

J. J. BORREE, Chairman.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, February 15, 1919.

A careful survey of the present economic situation in California leads the board of directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to the belief that it is imperative at this time for the State to rush to completion all public works now under way and to authorize within reason, any public works that will not only provide employment for our returned soldiers and sailors, but create permanent improvements within our State.

In southern California we are confronted with the problem of assimilating thousands of discharged soldiers. California can ill afford to allow these men to be idle after the service they have rendered our country and humanity. Without work, many of these men may become easy prey of anarchistic propaganda.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has urged the city and county of Los Angeles to take the same action that it is now requesting of the State. We are convinced that the palliative for the growing industrial unrest is employment at a fair wage for our present labor surplus.

Respectfully submitted.

WATT L. MORELAND, President.

Also:

WHEREAS, The American Federation of Labor, in its "Reconstruction Program," says: "To assure that the insurance fund derived from commerce and industry will be paid to injured workers, state insurance must supplant, and prohibit the existence of, employers' liability insurance operated for profit"; and

WHEREAS, Private insurance companies have presented to the Legislature Senate Bill No. 603 and Assembly Bill No. 791, both designed to injure State insurance by removing the State Compensation Insurance Fund from the jurisdiction of the Industrial Accident Commission of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, For more than five years past the State fund has been in successful operation, has paid in excess of $2,500,000 to victims of industrial injuries, has returned substantial sums to employers in the form of dividends, and neither employees nor employers have requested a change in the fund's efficient management, and the demand for change comes from the opponents of all State insurance, actuated by selfish motives; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Los Angeles Building Trades Council, at its regular meeting held on Thursday, February 27, 1919, opposes the passage of Senate Bill No. 603 and Assembly Bill No. 791, and urges the Senators and Assemblymen at Sacramento to vote against such bills; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the press, Governor W. D. Stephens, Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young, and each member of the California Legislature.

LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA, March 3, 1919.

We, the undersigned, legal voters of Long Beach and vicinity, Los Angeles County, are informed that a bill is pending in the State Legislature, which, if passed, will establish compulsory military training in all high schools and colleges of the State.

Believing that such a policy would be a serious mistake and a backward step in our civilization, we most respectfully but earnestly petition you to do all in your power to defeat the passage of said bill.

We would call your attention to the law passed at Sacramento in 1917 providing for physical training and education of all boys and girls, and urge that it is sufficient.

We also call attention to the rapid advance toward disarmament, in the league of nations which has already been accepted by fourteen nations. The allies have successfully terminated a war against Prussian militarism and autocracy. We do not now want to bind on our people a law compelling such military training.

Very respectfully,

JOHN C. CHARLES,

And 62 others.

YUBA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,

(Signed)

G. E. NUTT, Chairman.

Dated this fourth day of March, 1919.

Attest: PHIL J. DIVVER, Clerk of Board.

By Senator Inman:

We, the undersigned, most respectfully ask that you support Senate Bill No. 384, which provides that chiropractors shall be examined by a State Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

CHAS. H. ENGLEBRY,

And 42 others.

Also:

We, the undersigned residents and voters of your district, respectfully request that you use your influence and vote against any bills, which may be introduced in our Legislature, the object of which is to impose burdens or unfair conditions and restrictions or excessive license fees on rural retailers selling and delivering spices, extracts, toilet preparations, domestic and stock remedies, poultry supplies, dips and disinfectants, etc.

These retailers have their regular customers, and supply them at their door with high grade goods at reasonable prices and on very favorable terms, and we strongly protest against any legislation which will injure or restrict their business. Any such legislation would not only be unjust and unfair to them, but it would also be an imposition upon our rights as citizens to buy where we please and under advantageous circumstances.

We find their method of doing business both economical and convenient. They guarantee the quality of their goods, which we have always found to be very satisfactory. Their business affords suitable occupation for hundreds of men who are good, industrious, tax-paying citizens of our State, and legislation imposing unjust burdens on these retailers will have a tendency to destroy honest competition, foster monopoly and increase the cost of our household necessities, and we earnestly protest against the passage of such bills.

MRS. E. LEWIS,

And 317 others.

ADDRESS BY SENATOR SLATER.

The following address was delivered by Senator Slater:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate,

May I be permitted at this time to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this is the day set apart in California some years since as 'Burbank, Bird and Arbor Day' as a token to the distinguished citizen of California and world man, Mr. Luther Burbank.

This, Mr. President, is Mr. Burbank's seventieth birthday, and in behalf of my fellow Senators and myself I have forwarded a telegram of congratulation to Mr. Burbank, assuring him of our goodwill and expressing the hope that he will be spared for many more years to continue his very useful work for the benefit of humanity.

Today in California and elsewhere throughout the country and beyond the seas, thousands of school children will commemorate this day by the planting of trees and flowers in effective tribute to the accomplishments of this great benefactor.

For over forty years in Santa Rosa and the county of Sonoma, the constituency I have the honor to represent, this great man has been patiently at work ennobling and enriching nature in the production of many plants and flowers that have gained world-wide acknowledgment.

In his home town of Santa Rosa, Mr. Burbank's birthday will be commemorated in one of the unique and interesting celebrations of the year at which Mr. Burbank—a great friend of children—will be present, and more trees and flowers will be planted by children. Some time since Theodore Roosevelt said he considered Luther Burbank one of the most useful men of his generation, and such has been the tribute of men the world over. I could enumerate many instances in which throughout the years representatives of the governments of many countries have come to Santa Rosa to acquaint Mr. Burbank with a grateful acknowledgment of his work in the interest of mankind in giving the very best his genius can command.

Therefore, Mr. President, may I suggest, I consider it eminently proper that the Senate of California should pause for a few moments in token of appreciation of what Mr. Burbank has done throughout nearly half a century of activity, and I am sure, on this, his seventieth birthday, we all respond most heartily in the sentiment of the occasion in expressing the hope that God will spare him for many more years to still pursue his labors.

MOTION BY SENATOR RIGDON.

The following motion was made by Senator Rigdon:

MR. PRESIDENT: I move that the gracious, eloquent sentiments of Senator Slater on this occasion be published in the Journal.

Motion duly seconded and carried.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT.

In announcing the vote on the motion, the President made the following statement:

I am sure we are all heartily in accord with Senator Rigdon's suggestion, and Senator Slater's remarks will be printed in the Journal.

CALLIE E. HORST.

And 35 others.

Also:

We, the undersigned members of the Pasadena Duck Club, respectfully request you to vote against Assembly Bill No. 6. Should this bill pass it would not only be a detriment to ourselves and the general public, but also to the Eastern sportsmen who spend their winters in southern California.

ED. R. BRALEY.

And 11 others.

Also:

We, the undersigned voters and residents of Glendora, California, having carefully read Assembly Bill No. 347, do hereby convey to you our earnest protest to the injustice and illegality of the measures which it contains. The bill is far too autocratic and drastic, placing too much power in the hands of but one school of medicine, and ignoring the many who have found more efficacious methods of healing, and who have the right to employ the method of their own choosing.

We therefore ask you, in the name of justice and liberty, to use your influence and vote to aid in the defeat of this unrighteous bill.

Very sincerely yours,

MRS. LIDA WAICKMAN.

And 15 others.

By Senator Irwin:

We, the undersigned residents of Kern County, California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of church and state, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

LOUIS VAN BRUDE.

By Senator Inman:

It has been called to the attention of the produce people of Los Angeles that it is proposed to amend Senate Bill No. 513 by adopting the package commonly known as the Northern Halleck as a standard and only basket to be used in the shipping and handling of berries in California, and we, the undersigned produce people of Los Angeles, California, desire to vigorously protest against the adoption of this style of package for the handling of berries. The tin-top berry basket, universally and exclusively used in southern California, has always been a satisfactory package, and we would recommend the adoption of this basket, if any, as a standard container for berries.

KLEIN-SIMPSON FRUIT COMPANY.

And 125 others.

We, the undersigned residents of the State of California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of church and state, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

CONSOLIDATED CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

By H. S. MADDOX, General Secretary.

Also:

Among the many measures for your consideration, the proposed Senate Bill No. 416 will, no doubt, be passed to your notice.

This bill proposes to repeal a previous act "regulating therewith and providing for the manner of using bed clothes in hotels," popularly known as the "Nine-foot Bed Sheet Law."

The existing bill, approved April 25, 1915, enforces a lap-over of clean sheeting—some 18 inches or more—as a covering to the blankets and quilts beneath, which are seldom, if ever, sterilized; the lap offering material protection to the sleeper from becoming common carriers of possible infection or contagion from previous unhealthy or unclean occupants.

The short sheets are inadequate for such protection; and while some opposition had been advanced to the nine-foot lengths on account of the increased costs of sheeting, laundering, etc., we find that hotel rates have amply increased to cover this, as well as other increased costs of service, etc.

After thorough consideration of all the facts and probabilities, we feel that no lengthy argument need be made to demonstrate that the passage of the new bill would but tend to jeopardize the health of our fellow men. The United Commercial Travelers of California, affiliated with some 80,000 other united commercial travelers throughout the United States, earnestly ask your disapproval of the repeal, and that the present bill be allowed to stand as it is.

Trusting that you will appreciate our motive and the extent of our energies in the interests of public health and general sanitation, we remain,

Yours for good health,

UNITED COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS OF AMERICA.
HARRY P. ROTHERMEL.

ROSE A. McLAUCHLIN, Secretary.

By Senator Rominger :

We, the undersigned voters and citizens of Azusa, California, having read Assembly Bill No. 347, do hereby convey to you our earnest protest against the measure. The bill is too autocratic and drastic, in that it gives to the one school of medicine almost unlimited privileges, unmindful of the opinions of those who have found more efficacious methods of healing. We, therefore, request you to use your influence and vote to defeat this unrighteous bill.

A. BRUBAKER.

And 15 others.

By Senator Slater :

We, the undersigned residents of Sonoma County, California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of church and state, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

JAMES D. IRELAND.

And 50 others.

JOHN ROBERTS.

And 74 others.

By the Secretary:

In behalf of the W. C. T. U. of the city of Turlock, I wish to express our keen interest in Senate Bill No. 281, in relation to the "State industrial farm for delinquent women."

Our plea is that the bill be supported to the greatest extent possible.

Trusting that we will not be disappointed in this matter, we are,

THE W. C. T. U. OF THE CITY OF TURLOCK,
MRS. ESTHER PETERSON.

Also:

We are against any bill that will deprive boys under sixteen and more than ten from selling or carrying newspapers or periodicals.

The boys should be helped, and not hampered.

With the money earned selling or carrying newspapers or periodicals, many boys are paying for their own clothes, some are helping at home, others are starting bank accounts. All are learning to take care of themselves.

The boys should be encouraged, not discouraged.

We protest at the passage of any bill that will deprive boys under sixteen and more than ten from selling or carrying newspapers or periodicals.

JOHN I. BEVANS.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to section two of article eighteen of the constitution of the State of California, relating to a convention for revising the constitution of the State of California.

The legislature of the State of California, at its regular session commencing on the sixth day of January, A. D. 1919, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of said legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes that section two of article eighteen of the constitution of the State of California be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature shall deem it necessary to adopt a new constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote, at the next general election, for or against a convention for that purpose, and if a majority of the electors voting at such election on the proposition for a convention shall vote in favor thereof, the legislature shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same. In so providing for calling such convention, the legislature shall make provision for the election of one hundred sixty-three delegates thereto (one of whom shall be chosen from each assembly district, one from each county, and twenty-five from the state at large), and each of whom shall, except as herein provided, have the same qualifications as members of the legislature.

All persons who are elected as delegates to such convention shall be deemed to hold an office filled by election by the people, within the meaning of section nineteen of article four of this constitution. No declaration of affiliation with any political party, or other test or qualification of partisanship of any kind shall be required of any candidate for election as a delegate to such convention, and the legislature shall incorporate in its plans for calling such convention suitable provisions for the nomination and election of nonpartisan delegates thereto.

The delegates elected to such convention shall meet within nine months after their election, at such place as the legislature may direct. At a special election to be provided for by law such proposed new constitution shall be submitted to the people for their ratification or rejection; and it shall be competent for the convention to submit alternative proposals and to determine the form and matter of such submission.

The returns of such election shall, in such manner as the convention shall direct, be certified to the executive of the state, who shall call to his assistance the controller, treasurer, and secretary of state, and compare the returns so certified to him; and it shall be the duty of the executive to declare, by his proclamation, such new constitution, as may have been ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such special election, to be the constitution of the State of California.

The people, in voting for or against the adoption of this amendment, shall be deemed to have determined by such vote whether or not a majority of the electors are in favor of calling such convention, and, in the event of its adoption, the legislature shall proceed, at its forty-fourth session, to enact all necessary measures for calling and holding such convention, as herein provided.

The following resolutions were adopted, without dissenting voice, by the faculty and student body of the State Normal School at San Diego, California, March 10, 1919:

WHEREAS, The purpose which led the United States into the world war will be only half-attained if the defeat of military autocracy be not followed by some definite agreement wherein the peoples of the world may provide for the peaceful development of national life and international relations; and

WHEREAS, A statement of the terms of such an agreement must be an essential and preliminary part of the treaty of peace, if that treaty is to erect safeguards against future war; and

WHEREAS, The peace conference at Paris has submitted to the peoples of the world a constitution creating the mechanism and defining the purposes and procedure of a federation or league of nations, which constitution contains provision for its own amendment as may be found necessary in practice; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, having given careful consideration to the proposed compact, we favor the entrance of the United States into such a league of nations as is defined in this constitution with its provision for amendment; be it further

Resolved, That we strongly condemn, as unworthy of the generous motives with which our people entered the war, the injection of selfishly national interests or ambitions into the consideration of so momentous a problem as that of establishing the peace of the world; be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the President of the United States, the Senators and Congressmen representing the State of California, to the Honorable William H. By Senator Duncan:

The eighteen annual Sunday school convention of Butte County, in session at Chico, California, March 7 and 8, 1919, does hereby resolve as follows:

1. That we are in favor of a Sunday closing law for the State of California.
2. That we urge our State Legislature to enact such a law.
3. That we pledge the Sunday school forces of this county to such legislation, believing that it will conserve the economic and moral forces of our State.
4. That a copy of these resolutions, duly certified to by the officers of this convention, be sent to our State Senator, Hon. W. E. Duncan, Jr., and to Assemblyman Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes.

By Senator Burnett:

We, the undersigned students, alumni and friends of the University of California extension, respectfully urge your honorable body to adopt the bill introduced by Senator Lester G. Burnett of San Francisco making an appropriation under certain conditions for a University of California extension building in San Francisco and for a similar building in Los Angeles.

The University of California extension carries the university directly to the people of the State. Its usefulness to the people who are unable to attend the university proper (of whom there are in the districts adjacent to San Francisco and Los Angeles approximately 10,000) is being seriously and vitally impaired by the lack of proper classroom and administrative accommodations.

We ask this in the name of the thousands who desire university advantages and who are unable to attend the university proper.

MARGARET GRAY FISCHER,

And 40 others.

By Senator Inman:

We, the undersigned residents of the State of California, believing that the enactment of a Sunday law would be a violation of the American principle of the separation of church and state, do hereby respectfully but earnestly protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 77 and Assembly Bill No. 142, and all other such legislation.

GEORGE H. CHRISTIANSON,

And 28 others.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS—(OUT OF ORDER).

Senator Breed asked for and was granted unanimous consent to take up Senate Joint Resolution No. 28 for consideration at this time, out of the regular order.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 28.

Relative to requesting the Congress of the United States to investigate the proposed action of the United States Railroad Administration to subdivide into zones the present switching limits of the railroads reaching and serving the cities of San Francisco, Oakland, and Los Angeles, and thereby increasing the charges for switching within those cities, without first submitting the matter for hearing to the Railroad Commission of California or the Interstate Commerce Commission, in pursuance of section 20 of article XII of the constitution, and section 63 of the Public Utilities Act of California, and section 15 of the Act to Regulate Commerce.

WHEREAS, The United States Railroad Administration has initiated and is now considering a proposition to subdivide into zones the present switching limits in San Francisco, Oakland, and Los Angeles, of the railroads now serving those cities, and to graduate the charges for switching within said switching limits and thereby bring about certain increases in charges to shippers; and

WHEREAS, The said proposition has not been submitted for approval and authorization either to the Interstate Commerce Commission, as required by section 15 of the Act to Regulate Commerce, as amended August 9, 1917, providing that no increased rate, fare, charge or classification shall be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission except after approval thereof has been secured from such commission, or to the Railroad Commission of the State of California, as required by section 20, article XII of the constitution of the State of California, and section 63 of the Public Utilities Act of California, which provide that no railroad shall raise any rate, fare or toll or so alter any classification, practice, rule or regulation as to result in an increase in any rate, fare or charge, under any circumstances whatsoever, except upon a showing before the Railroad Commission of the State of California and a finding by said commission that such increase is justified; and

WHEREAS, The city and county of San Francisco, by its duly elected and qualified legislative and governmental bodies, has heretofore protested to the United States Railroad Administration against this proposed action on the grounds specifically set forth in the following resolution:

Resolution No. 16518. (New Series.)

WHEREAS, There has been submitted to the United States Railroad Administration a proposition to subdivide the present San Francisco switching limits into zones and to grade switching charges within and between said zones; and

WHEREAS, This proposed adjustment if made effective will change the custom which has long obtained in San Francisco of charging a uniform switching charge throughout the San Francisco switching limits and will tend materially to increase the present intraterminal charges for switching within the San Francisco switching limits; and

WHEREAS, This proposed adjustment if made effective will destroy the parity on which industries in San Francisco switching limits have been built up and would engender discrimination between various industries in San Francisco and induce the location of new industries in the limited area which is given the most favorable switching charges and thereby tend to congest industrial development in such locality and greatly to restrict and limit the wider development of industrial San Francisco and thereby cause it irreparable injury; and

WHEREAS, The proposed action will tend to nullify the recent tentative decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission whereby all industries in the San Francisco industrial district are placed on a parity with those in Oakland and Los Angeles; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the city and county of San Francisco does hereby protest against the proposed readjustment of switching charges in San Francisco in the manner hereinbefore referred to; and be it further

Resolved, That the city attorney be and he is hereby authorized to appear before the United States Railroad Administration in opposition to the proposed readjustment of switching charges within the San Francisco switching limits and to take such other action as may be necessary, before any tribunal having jurisdiction of the matter, to prevent the proposed changes being made effective; and be it further

Resolved, That the city attorney of the city and county of San Francisco be and he is hereby authorized to co-operate to the fullest extent with the city of South San Francisco, the chamber of commerce of South San Francisco, manufacturers association of South San Francisco and the civic and industrial organizations of the city and county of San Francisco for the purpose of preventing the proposed changes being made effective.

Adopted—Board of Supervisors, San Francisco, February 18, 1919.

AYES: Supervisors Brandon, Gallagher, Hayden, Wilmer, Hynes, Kortick, Lahaney, McLeran, Nelson, Power, Welch, Wolfe.

ABSENT: Supervisors Deasy, Hooks, McSheehy, Mulvihill, Schmitz, Sohr.

J. S. DUNNIGAN, Clerk.

Approved, San Francisco, February 19, 1919.

JAMES ROLPH, JR., Mayor.

And

WHEREAS, The city of Oakland has in like manner protested by the adoption of the following resolution:

OAKLAND CITY COUNCIL.

Resolution No. 17794 N. S.

Introduced by Commissioner Jackson.

Resolution directing the city attorney to enter formal protest against proposed increase of switching rates by the Division of Traffic—Western Territory—United States Railroad Administration, and to take such legal action in connection therewith as may be necessary or proper to resist such proposed increase of switching rates.

WHEREAS, The Division of Traffic—Western Territory—of the United States Railroad Administration has proposed to increase the switching charges for intraterminal and interterminal movement of freight within the City of Oakland; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the city attorney be and he is hereby instructed on behalf of the city of Oakland, to enter formal protest against such proposed increase of switching rates and to take such legal action in connection therewith as may be necessary or proper to resist such proposed increase of switching charges.

I certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a resolution passed by the city council of the city of Oakland, California, on February 10, 1919.

L. W. CUMMINGS,
City Clerk.

Per (signed) W. W. CHAPPELL, Deputy.

And

WHEREAS, The city of Los Angeles has likewise adopted the following resolution: RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF LOS ANGELES ON MARCH 6, 1919.

WHEREAS, There has been submitted to the Railroad Administration the proposition to divide the present switching limits in the cities of Seattle, Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles into zones, and grading the switching charges within and between said zones; and

WHEREAS, The proposed adjustment will change the practice long in use in Los Angeles, and will tend to increase materially the present inter-terminal charges for switching within the Los Angeles switching limits, and will limit and hamper the growth of industrial districts; and

WHEREAS, There is to be a hearing on said matter before the district freight traffic committee of the United States Railroad Administration in San Francisco on Friday, March 7, 1919; now therefore, be it

Resolved, That the city council of the city of Los Angeles do hereby protest against the proposed change, and the clerk of council be instructed to wire copy of this resolution to W. G. Barnwell, chairman of said committee.

Which resolution, being seconded by Mr. Conrad, was adopted by the following vote:

AYES: Cleveland, Conaway, Conrad, Criswell, Mallard, Olsen, Reeves, True, and President Farmer.

NOES: None.

And

WHEREAS, The proponents of the proposed action have offered no justification for the proposed readjustment or for the determination of the boundaries of the proposed zones, as fixed, other than a statement that the same is necessary; and

WHEREAS, The proposed adjustment, if made effective, will violate a provision of the following agreement entered into between the city of Oakland and the Southern Pacific Company, known as Ordinance No. 3197 of the city of Oakland, approved November 23, 1910, and still in effect, providing for uniform switching charges within the city of Oakland, and which was a consideration for the granting to the Southern Pacific Company of certain valuable waterfront franchises within the said city of Oakland:

Copy of section seven of Ordinance No. 3197, passed by the City Council of the Municipality of Oakland, November 7, 1910, and approved by the mayor thereof on November 23, 1910.

Such ordinance being described as follows:

Granting to the Southern Pacific Company, its successors and assigns, the right and franchise, for the term of fifty years, to the exclusive use, occupation and enjoyment of a certain portion of the water front of the city of Oakland, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, operating, and using thereon railroads for the transportation of freight and passengers, and for terminals of such railroads, and slips, wharves, docks and piers thereon, and for other purposes, together with the right to use as a fairway for the passage of its vessels thereon in common with other vessels, certain water lying westerly, southwesterly and southerly from said portion of said water front.

Also granting to said company, its successors and assigns, the right and franchise to use for like purposes for the term of eight years that portion of long wharf lying westerly of the premises first above mentioned.

Section 7. The rights, privileges and franchises hereby granted are granted upon the conditions that grantee, its successors and assigns, will at all times during the life of this franchise, upon demand of any person, firm or corporation operating any industry or engaged in business in the city of Oakland, including the city of Oakland, receive from and deliver to any railway having a terminus in the city of Oakland, and with which said grantee, its successors or assigns, shall have track connections either in the city of Oakland, or outside the city of Oakland, freight cars to be placed upon tracks laid upon the premises hereinabove described for the purpose of transferring freight from ships or cars, or from cars to ships; such cars to be so placed to be used for the receipt and delivery of freight in carloads only, and the said grantee, its successors and assigns, shall be permitted to collect a reasonable and just charge for the switching and transporting of said cars without discrimination; provided, further, that all freight rates on the lines of the grantee, its successors and assigns, to or from points outside the city of Oakland, to or from any point in the city of Oakland shall in no case discriminate against the city of Oakland in favor of San Francisco under substantially similar conditions; and provided, further, that no point in the city of Oakland shall have any better rate than any other point in said city except that proper and reasonable switching charges may be collected; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Congress of the United States be and is hereby requested to investigate the proposed attempt of the United States Railroad Administration to increase the charges for switching within the said cities of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Oakland, and thereby disturb a rate uniformity between industries within said cities that has obtained for many years, without first submitting said proposition to the lawfully constituted regulatory body having jurisdiction thereof, for approval and authorization; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forthwith transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each of the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of California.
